O'Hara, Russell Honored

Delmar T. O'Hara, left, and Jerry Russell were cited by the Wellsville Jaycees for their "outstanding" contributions to the community during the annual "Bosses Night" banquet at the SOI Hotel Monday.

Russell, principal of East Junior High School at East Liverpool, was presented the Distinguished Service Award, given to a man under 35, and O'Hara, an attorney and city solicitor, was presented the Civic Service Award for a man over 35.

Forty attended the dinner, including guests from the East Liverpool and Lisbon Jaycees. Bill McKinley of Kinsman, an American League baseball umpire, was guest speaker.

RUSSELL WAS cited for having served as chairman of the Columbiana County Junior Miss pageant about a month ago and for having served as city co-chairman in the fund drive for the Citizens Scholarship Foundation.

A member of the Jaycee Board of Directors, Russell is past first vice president and has been named "Jaycee of the Month."

He served as chairman of the first scholarship fund drive in Wellsville in 1963. He won the "Sparkplug" award last year and also holds the Spoke award of the Jaycees. He has served as chaplain several years and is a past Jaycee Day chairman.

He is active in the Riverside United Presbyterian Church, holding various offices, and a member of the Columbiana County basketball and football officials' associations.

He holds a master's degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh and currently is studying economics at Pittsburgh.

Russell began his teaching career in 1956 at No. 16 School. He later served as principal of Highlandtown School and as elementary supervisor of Leetonia schools. He was named East Junior principal in 1964.

He is married and has three children. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Russell of Wellsville R. D. 1.

O'HARA, who served as state representative from 1951 to 1955, was cited for his work on the Highlandtown Lake project.

He also was cited for his efforts in helping obtain a new post office building in Wells-

Become Ill While Attending Mass In Pittsburgh Area

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Thirty-nine small children and three nuns were sickened by carbon monoxide fumes today while attending a preschool Mass at a Roman Catholic Church in suburban Sharpsburg.

None of the victims appeared seriously affected, police said. They were taken to three hospitals for treatment and observation.

An estimated 200 pupils were in the church. Nuns in charge of the children, who attended the Madonna of Jerusalem Elementary School across the street, noticed that some seemed groggy and immediately evacuated the church.

Among the nuns sickened was Sister Mary Emile, school principal.

12 Committees Tackle Arduous Job

Congressional Hearings Due On Johnson's Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twelve congressional committees started cranking up today for the long and arduous job of handling President Johnson's $112.8-billion budget.

Hearings on the many facets of the budget, presented to Congress Monday, will begin Wednesday when a House Defense Appropriations subcommittee will hear Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara explain the money needs of the military.

McNamara's testimony will be keyed to a presidential request for $12.76 billion in emergency funds, exclusive of the $57.1-billion defense budget for fiscal 1967.

The entire House Appropriations Committee will be given an over-all picture of budget and appropriation requirements next Monday, when the Budget Bureau and the Treasury Department present the case for the President.

The 12 subcommittees will settle down then to months of testimony on the 12 separate money bills which annually finance the government.

The usual cries of "too much" went up from Republicans Monday as Democrats commended the President for what they called a realistic approach to the government's fiscal problems in his budget.

"I have never seen a budget based on more tenuous revenue assumptions and with such little regard for the fiscal welfare of this nation," commented Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican on the House Appropriations Committee.

"Restraint is the dominant note," said Democrat George H. Mahon of Texas, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

Bow did not dispute Mahon's estimate that there would be little disagreement over about 90 per cent of the budget. The area of disagreement will be the funding of controversial new "Great Society" programs.

Exclusive of permanent appropriations for such things as interest on the national debt, the President wants Congress to make available about $106.3 billion in new funds this year.

Last year Congress appropriated $106 billion of the $110 billion requested by the President. It may trim a little deeper this congressional election year since economy always has been a popular record for campaign purposes.

Crew Of 4, 42 Soldiers Lose Lives

Craft Slams Into Hillside; Impact Explodes Shells

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Air Force troop transport carrying 46 Americans and a cargo of mortar shells crashed in dense fog and rain today in the central highlands just after taking off from An Khe. All aboard were killed.

The twin-engine C123 Fairchild Provider slammed into a hillside five miles east of An Khe and the impact exploded the mortar shells. The plane carried a crew of four from the 315th Air Commando Group and 42 soldiers of the 7th Cavalry Regiment.

U.S. officials said it was the worst American air crash in the Vietnamese war.

The cause of the crash was not immediately known.

An Khe is the staging area for the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division, which has been fighting the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese regulars in the highlands. It lies 250 miles northeast of Saigon in mountains where Communist snipers occasionally shoot at American planes.

The worst air disaster of the Vietnamese war involved a U.S. Air Force C123 which crashed into a peak south of Nha Trang last Dec. 11, killing 81 Vietnamese soldiers and the four American crewmen.

The highest American toll in a plane crash indirectly connected with the war occurred last Aug. 24 when a U.S. Marine Corps C130 transport carrying 63 Marines and two sailors back to the front from a brief leave crashed into Hong Kong harbor. Fifty-eight perished.

The unit killed in the crash today was en route to join one of a number of general offensives launched by the Americans, Australians, South Koreans, New Zealanders and South Viet-

Downtown Work Due

Work Continues In Snow Cleanup

Street department crews and hired equipment continued removing snow from East Liverpool's streets in an effort to restore normal traffic and parking conditions after the weekend storm.

Work began at 6 this morning on clearing Pennsylvania Ave. from Maple St. to Virginia Ave. and Mulberry St. from Pennsylvania Ave. to Railroad St. The job was scheduled to begin Monday night at 6, but was called off because both streets were lined with parked cars, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey reported.

THE EQUIPMENT was at the scene last night — two high-lifts, six trucks and a grader — but it was impossible to do an adequate job because of the cars, Vodrey said.

When the job finally got started this morning, there was only one car that had not been removed, he pointed out.

When the East End work is completed, the snow - removal crews are scheduled to shift to the western section of the downtown area, Vodrey reported.

Work is slated on Jackson and Jefferson Sts., both between W. 4th St. and W. 6th St., W. 6th St. from Monroe St. to Jefferson St. and W. 4th St. from Jefferson St. to Jackson.

But it will not be undertaken if the areas are jammed with parked cars, the director emphasized.

The city still is using equipment hired from the Pusateri Excavating Co. to supplement its own rolling stock. The hired equipment includes two high-lifts, six trucks and a grader.

All trucks equipped with snowplows still are working today.

Some Snow Expected Tonight, Wednesday

More snow is in the offing, but the forecast doesn't carry the foreboding "Heavy fall" included in the emergency warning issued early Saturday afternoon before a 17-inch deposit hit the area.

Warmer weather is due along with whatever snow may come. The low tonight is expected to range between 14 and 22, with Wednesday to be slightly warmer.

The mercury failed to dip to the near-zero mark Monday night as predicted.

Mixed Feeling Greets Plan Of Fulbright

Suggests Viet Cong Be Major Party In Any Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright's suggestion that the Viet Cong be recognized as a major party to any negotiations to end the war in Viet Nam drew mixed reaction today on Capitol Hill.

The Arkansas Democrat, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said Monday that the war is between the Viet Cong guerrillas, supported by North Viet Nam, and the United States and South Viet Nam.

"It would seem to me a proper party to the negotiations would be the Viet Cong," Fulbright told newsmen.

He said that "the policy of not recognizing the Viet Cong as a major party to any negotiations may be a stumbling block to the peace offensive."

Fulbright made his remarks after Secretary of State Dean Rusk explained the administration's position at a three-hour closed committee session.

Questioned by newsmen, Fulbright said he had mentioned his suggestions to Rusk, but the secretary "doesn't agree."

A Republican member of Fulbright's committee, Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, said he didn't believe that recognition of the Viet Cong was a major factor.

Case told a reporter, "I assume from what the President said that our position is flexible enough to make it not a major factor in the discussions or affecting the possibility of negotiations and that it is one of those things that is not wrong to leave to the judgment of the people in the executive branch."

Case referred to President Johnson's State of the Union

Johnson May Have To Compromise

Senate Fight Shaping Up On 4-Year Term In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson apparently will have to agree to substantial compromises to get Senate approval of his proposal for four-year terms for House members.

An Associated Press survey indicated today that Johnson cannot now muster the necessary two-thirds majority for a constitutional amendment calling for the four-year election of House members in presidential election years.

The survey reached 88 of the 100 senators. Eighteen declined to make any public commitments and 12 others were not available.

Both Senate and House would have to give two-thirds approval for such an amendment, which would then become effective only if ratified by three-fourths of the states.

Although Johnson argued in a special message against staggering the election of the representatives, 26 senators said they do not favor electing all of the members in presidential years.

Twenty-four senators said they are not in favor of four-year terms. Only 20 generally supported the President's plan, a narrow base on which to build toward the 67 votes which would be needed for passage if all senators voted.

Those who were canvassed were asked:

Do you favor President Johnson's proposal for election of House members to four-year terms in presidential years? If not, do you favor (1) maintaining the status quo or (2) the election of half the House membership every two years?

Nineteen Democrats and one Republican said they generally favor the President's proposal. Some of those, however, had reservations as to how it might be put into effect.

Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, assistant Democratic leader, said he thinks the amendment ought to be put into effect in 1968 and not in 1972, as Johnson proposed. Sen. Lee

Trio Indicted For Robbery Of Area Youth

Three Wellsville residents were indicted Monday afternoon by the Jefferson County Grand Jury at Steubenville on charges of robbery by force and violence.

The true bills were returned against Sidney H. Uhl, 18, of 2115 Chester Ave., Thomas Randall Buckel, 22, of Danbury Ave. and Dean Buckel, 19 of Wellsville R. D. 1.

They will be arraigned next Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. before Common Pleas Judge Arthur L. Hooper.

The three, along with an East Liverpool juvenile, are accused of the strong-armed robbery of an Empire youth on Jan. 7.

They allegedly robbed Norman Cunningham, 17, of his personal belongings valued at $85. Cunningham told police he was picked up by the four in a car and then dumped out on a rural road after being robbed.

Cunningham was brought to Wellsville to report the incident. The four were picked up a few

Trailer Fire Routs Family Second Time

LISBON — A house trailer fire Monday afternoon on Scroggs Rd., north of Elkton, burned out Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb and their two children for the second time within three months.

The blaze, blamed on a shorted refrigerator motor, destroyed the kitchen and front room and caused smoke damage to the other rooms.

An oil furnace explosion Nov. 12 destroyed their first house trailer.

Mrs. Webb, the former Mary Webber of East Liverpool, called the Lisbon volunteer fire department at 1:48 p. m. when the trailer filled with smoke. She and the children, Belinda, 4, and Bobbie, 2, went to the home of Mrs. Gerald Webb, Robert's mother, who lives near by.

The trailer reportedly filled with smoke burst into flames when firemen opened the door.

Says Pennsylvania Economy Booming

Scranton Hailed, Blasted On Commonwealth Talk

HARRISBURG (AP) — The 1966 general assembly is picking up right where the 1965 one left off—on a note of partisan discord.

Democrats and Republicans quickly took odds with each other Monday immediately after Gov. Scranton appeared before a joint session to hail the economic progress of the state.

"Our economy is booming," he declared in his annual State of the Commonwealth Message, which was carried live on television and radio.

"The number of Pennsylvanians employed during the final months of the year rose to almost 4.5 million. Unemployment in December fell to 3.9 per cent —the lowest figure for this month in the history of modern record keeping."

Republican lawmakers, as was to be expected, hailed the message. But the Democrats sharply criticized it.

Sen. William G. Sesler, Erie, who has announced his availability for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, accused Scranton of "talking in his usual superlatives."

"It sounded more like the opening shot of the 1966 campaign than a State of the Commonwealth message," Sesler exclaimed. "Once again he has attempted to leave the impression that the commonwealth was in a state of chaos when he came here and that he has rejuvenated it in all phases."

Sen. Robert P. Casey, Lackawanna, a leading Democratic gubernatorial hopeful, said "the booming national economy has made possible all the things he is taking credit for."

Scranton touched on some phases of the budget he will unveil next week to the legislature for the 1966-67 fiscal year, in-

Dr. Williams To Run Again In Hancock

Dr. W. Dale Williams of New Cumberland, a member of the Hancock County Board of Education, filed today for re-election to the board.

Dr. Williams, who served as president of the organization for six years, was also elected to two terms (1960-61) as president of the West Virginia School Boards Association.

Dr. Williams received his elementary and high school education in Chester and was graduated from Ohio State University. He is in active practice in New Cumberland and is a member of the medical - dental staff of Weirton General Hospital.

Reared in Chester, he is the son of T. R. Williams of Virginia Ave., Chester, and the late Mrs. Blanche Williams. Dr. Williams and his wife, Iva M. Williams, reside at Ivandale Farm near Pughtown.

Questionable Fate In Senate

W. Va. House Okay Seen On Minimum Wage Bill

CHARLESTON (AP) — The House was expected to pass the $1-an-hour minimum wage bill today and send it to a questionable fate in the Senate, where a similar House-approved bill was allowed to die without a vote last year.

The Senate, meanwhile, had votes pending on three administration bills to free for use in the next fiscal year some $5.2 million of revenue now tied down to debt service on veterans bonus bonds.

An expected flood of attempted minimum wage bill amendments in the House Monday turned out to be a bare trickle. Of six amendments offered from the floor, two were adopted. Neither of these affected wages, hours or exemptions.

In those activities to which it applies, the bill requires an hourly wage of at least $1 and time-and-a-half pay for work in excess of 48 hours a week. Fifteen occupational categories are exempt from the bill's effects.

Otherwise, it applies to all employers with "six or more employes in any one separate, distinct and permanent location or business establishment."

The bill as originally introduced with the support of Gov. Hulett Smith and the AFL-CIO also applied to enterprises with six or more workers. A revision

McIlwain Set To File For Governor Bid

McIlwain said he would file petitions Wednesday as a candidate in the May 3 primary against state Sen. Frazier Reams Jr., who was given the endorsement Saturday of a party committee set up to screen statewide candidates.

Reams, of Toledo, said he would like to talk with McIlwain to avoid a primary battle "in the interest of party harmony." McIlwain showed no such interest.

Ohio State Secretary To Seek Re-Election

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown brought some extra paperwork to the office today, the nominating petitions he hopes will lead to his re-election.

Brown, a Republican, has been secretary of state since 1951. He said his petitions to put his name on the May 3 primary ballot bears 5,000 signatures representing all 88 counties.

Says Pennsylvania Economy Booming

Democrats and Republicans quickly took odds with each other Monday immediately after Gov. Scranton appeared before a joint session to hail the economic progress of the state.

"Our economy is booming," he declared in his annual State of the Commonwealth Message, which was carried live on television and radio.

"The number of Pennsylvanians employed during the final months of the year rose to almost 4.5 million. Unemployment in December fell to 3.9 per cent —the lowest figure for this month in the history of modern record keeping."

Republican lawmakers, as was to be expected, hailed the message. But the Democrats sharply criticized it.

Sen. William G. Sesler, Erie, who has announced his availability for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, accused Scranton of "talking in his usual superlatives."

"It sounded more like the opening shot of the 1966 campaign than a State of the Commonwealth message," Sesler exclaimed. "Once again he has attempted to leave the impression that the commonwealth was in a state of chaos when he came here and that he has rejuvenated it in all phases."

Sen. Robert P. Casey, Lackawanna, a leading Democratic gubernatorial hopeful, said "the booming national economy has made possible all the things he is taking credit for."

Scranton touched on some phases of the budget he will unveil next week to the legislature for the 1966-67 fiscal year, in-

Questionable Fate In Senate

CHARLESTON (AP) — The House was expected to pass the $1-an-hour minimum wage bill today and send it to a questionable fate in the Senate, where a similar House-approved bill was allowed to die without a vote last year.

The Senate, meanwhile, had votes pending on three administration bills to free for use in the next fiscal year some $5.2 million of revenue now tied down to debt service on veterans bonus bonds.

An expected flood of attempted minimum wage bill amendments in the House Monday turned out to be a bare trickle. Of six amendments offered from the floor, two were adopted. Neither of these affected wages, hours or exemptions.

In those activities to which it applies, the bill requires an hourly wage of at least $1 and time-and-a-half pay for work in excess of 48 hours a week. Fifteen occupational categories are exempt from the bill's effects.

Otherwise, it applies to all employers with "six or more employes in any one separate, distinct and permanent location or business establishment."

The bill as originally introduced with the support of Gov. Hulett Smith and the AFL-CIO also applied to enterprises with six or more workers. A revision

McIlwain Set To File For Governor Bid

McIlwain said he would file petitions Wednesday as a candidate in the May 3 primary against state Sen. Frazier Reams Jr., who was given the endorsement Saturday of a party committee set up to screen statewide candidates.

Reams, of Toledo, said he would like to talk with McIlwain to avoid a primary battle "in the interest of party harmony." McIlwain showed no such interest.

He said he would definitely

Ohio State Secretary To Seek Re-Election

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown brought some extra paperwork to the office today, the nominating petitions he hopes will lead to his re-election.

He filed the petitions in the election section of his office, where he is accustomed to accepting candidates' petitions in his role as Ohio's chief election official.

Brown, a Republican, has been secretary of state since 1951. He said his petitions to put his name on the May 3 primary ballot bears 5,000 signatures representing all 88 counties.

Dr. Williams To Run Again In Hancock

Dr. W. Dale Williams of New Cumberland, a member of the Hancock County Board of Education, filed today for re-election to the board.

Dr. Williams, who served as president of the organization for six years, was also elected to two terms (1960-61) as president of the West Virginia School Boards Association.

Dr. Williams received his elementary and high school education in Chester and was graduated from Ohio State University. He is in active practice in New Cumberland and is a member of the medical - dental staff of Weirton General Hospital.

Reared in Chester, he is the son of T. R. Williams of Virginia Ave., Chester, and the late Mrs. Blanche Williams. Dr. Williams and his wife, Iva M. Williams, reside at Ivandale Farm near Pughtown.

Trucker Fails To Appear, Warrant Issued For Arrest

LISBON — Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis issued a warrant this morning for the arrest of Andrew Eugene Turick, 27, of Wellsville, who failed to appear for arraignment Monday after being freed on his own recognizance on an indictment by the recent grand jury.

Turick's attorney appeared before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard to explain that the defendant was employed as a truck driver and that the vehicle he was operating had broken down in Joplin, Mo., en route to Texas.

Turick is charged with two counts of manslaughter in the second degree resulting from a two-car head-on collision Oct. 3 on the 10th St. Ext. west of Wellsville.

Pronounced dead on arrival at East Liverpool City Hospital after the crash were Edwin Eugene Bettis, 24, and his wife, Janice, 21, of Salineville.

Turick had been released under a new law which allows courts, at their discretion, to permit persons charged with felonies to be freed on their own recognizance. Failure to appear in court when ordered is in itself a felony, carrying a fine of up to $1,000 and a five-year prison sentence.

Device Eyed To Skip 14-B Filibuster

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield may use a parliamentary device today in an effort to steer a union shop proposal past a filibuster threat and onto the Senate floor.

The proposal would repeal the Taft-Hartley Act's section 14B which authorizes states to outlaw union shop contracts. Such contracts require all employes covered to join a union.

Mansfield renewed the 14B battle Monday.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who directed a successful filibuster against a similar move last October, launched at once a two-hour, 16-minute speech against Mansfield's motion to bring the repealer before the Senate.

Dirksen was followed by Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, who talked for an hour and three minutes until the Senate quit.

But Mansfield took the unusual step of adjourning the Senate Monday night instead of recessing as is the normal procedure when there is continuing business.

This had the effect of displacing his own motion to bring up 14B.

It also set up a two-hour "morning hour" period when the Senate convenes today. In that period, set aside by Senate rules for transaction of normally routine business, Mansfield can make a nondebatable motion to bring the 14B repealer before the Senate if he can get recoguition.

Mansfield, in starting the fight Monday, said, "I anticipate a great deal of difficulty — perhaps insurmountable, only time will tell — in reaching the point of discussion of the merits of this bill."

Mist, Winds Mar Hunt In Air Disaster

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Mist and howling winds today prevented searchers from reaching the wreckage of the Indian jetliner which crashed into Mont Blanc, killing all 117 persons aboard.

"Whatever remains up there was almost certainly buried by drifting snow during the night," said a helicopter pilot after a reconnaissance flight. "It could take months to get everything down."

The Air India Boeing 707, carrying 106 passengers and a crew of 11, crashed into the 15,781-foot peak Monday as it prepared to land at Geneva on a flight from Bombay to New York.

Five Americans and a Frenchwoman living in New York were among the passengers.

Helicopters of the French Mountain Rescue Service landed at the crash site Monday. The pilots said wreckage and bodies were scattered for miles over the mountain.

One helicopter brought down bits of charred remains before darkness halted rescue operations. The Mountain Rescue Service prevented guides from climbing to the wreckage because of the danger of avalanches. In 1950, a Chamonix guide, Rene Payot, was swept to his death by an avalanche as he led a rescue column to the scene of another Air India crash into Mont Blanc. Forty-four persons were killed in that one.

Gerard Devossoux, a guide said the plane missed clearing the peak by about 15 yards.

"Everything was completely pulverized," he said. "There were bits of bodies and wreckage everywhere—nothing was identifiable except for a few letters and packets."

Chamonix residents said Mont Blanc was shrouded by a blizzard when the plane hit the peak.

The plane's pilot, Capt. J. T. D'Souza, was one of Air India's most experienced pilots and was the copilot on Pope Paul VI's flight to India in 1964.

Among the passengers was India's No. 1 nuclear scientist, Dr. Homi J. Bhabha, head of India's Atomic Energy Commission. The country's new prime minister, Indira Gandhi, who also is minister of atomic energy, said Bhabha's death was a personal loss and "a terrible blow to our nation."

Mrs. Gandhi sent messages of sympathy to the families of the crash victims.

"I am happy to report to you that the budget I will submit next week not only will require no new taxes, but also will project another substantial surplus for the current fiscal year," he said.

He outlined briefly a $109 million increase in spending, which would push he present $1.354 billion budget well over a record high $1.4 billion level.

He proposed that $50 million of a projected surplus from the current budget be set aside to help defray the cost of the new school subsidy program approved in the 1965 session.

Some Democrats, however, questioned whether this was legally possible since the money is not in hand yet and would not be applied until the 1967-68 school year.

Other spending proposals listed by Scranton included: $4 million more for community colleges; $6.5 million more for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority; $16.7 million more for state mental health institutions; $12 million more for an accentuated community mental health program; $9 million more in public assistance payments.

He also proposed more money for Pennsylvania State University, Temple University and the 14 state colleges.

All of which prompted Senate Democratic Minority Whip William J. Lane to comment:

"It only goes to prove what I've said all along since he raised the sales tax from 4 to 5 per cent in 1963—he didn't need the extra money to start with."

With the budget outline still to come, the legislature adjourned until Monday.

In other developments:

Bill Signings—Scranton signed into law several of his key administration proposals, including a new point system for motor vehicle code violations and three civil rights acts.

House Terms — Five House Democrats introduced a constitutional amendment to increase terms of representatives from two to four years. A similar proposal was made by President Johnson last week for the U.S. House of Representatives.

Four Senate Republicans introduced a proposed amendment to raise the term of senators from four to six years and to raise House terms from two to four years.

Appointments — The governor submitted to the Senate his appointment of William A. Meehan, Philadelphia Republican leader, as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

He also asked for confirmation of Judge Theodore O. Spaulding of Philadelphia to an interim term on State Superior Court Spaulding is a Republican candidate for a full 10-year term.

Chester Area Driver Charged In Mishap

James Umensetter of Chester R.D. 1 was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control following a rear-end auto collision Monday afternoon on Carolina Ave. between 4th and 5th Sts., Chester police reported.

Umensetter's 1953 truck struck a westbound 1963 station wagon driven by Dolores Fryer of Chester R.D. 1 from the rear as the Fryer vehicle turned into a service station.

A hearing was set for tonight at 7:30 before Mayor Henry Abrams.

by the House Judiciary Committee added the qualifying language as to one location.

In the main amendment fight Monday, Del. James W. Loop, D-Kanawha, was beaten 78-20 in an attempt to remove the one-location provision.

The revenue bills awaiting a Senate vote were part of an administration plan for early retirement of $27 million worth of bonds which helped finance bonuses to West Virginia veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean War.

Enough money to pay off the bonds has accumulated from earmarking of one cent of the six-cents-a-pack state cigarette tax; $2.75 of the $5.50 a barrel beer tax, and $1.6 million yearly of state liquor profits. The bills would end the earmarking for bond debt service and hereafter channel the money into general revenue.

Without roll calls, the Senate beat attempts by Sen. W. T. Brotherton Jr., D-Kanawha, to amend the cigarette, beer and liquor measures to boost yearly revenue from these sources some $9.6 million.

Brotherton proposed doubling the cigarette tax, to 12 cents; increasing the beer tax to $6, and boosting liquor store prices enough to add another $1 million to yearly profits.

He argued that more revenue was needed for such activities as higher education, welfare and financing the proposed constitutional convention.

"These are the easiest taxes to raise at this time to take care of our imminent problems," Brotherton said.

In other legislative developments Monday:

—The Senate passed 32-1—with Minority Leader John E. Carrigan, R-Marshall, dissenting—an act authorizing sale of $20 million inroad bonds next fiscal year. The measure now goes to the governor. The $20-million issue will be the third of that amount under the 1964 Better Roads Amendment.

—The House passed 98-0 and sent to the governor an act to repeal the 1965 law which gave preference to West Virginia firms in state purchasing. The law produced the unforeseen result of working against West Virginia firms selling to other states.

Settlement Removes Case On Civil Docket

A civil action scheduled for trial in Municipal Court Wednesday has been removed from the docket after counsel for the parties advised the court the case has been settled and dismissed.

The action was a civil case in which Ralph Copenhaver was plaintiff and Wilson Smith was defendant. The Municipal Court assignment for this week was published in The Review Saturday.

Court officials said counsel for the parties reported Saturday the case had been settled "about two years ago," but the court said it had not been advised. The docket was marked "case settled and dismissed" under date of Jan. 22. The court said the costs have not been paid.

Proposal Seeks To Erase Debt Limit, Borrowing

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate is being asked to approve a proposed constitutional amendment to eliminate the state's $1 million debt limit and borrowing by the General State Authority.

The proposal, introduced Monday with bipartisan backing, would permit general debts for capital improvements to be created by the state if they first are approved by the legislature and then by the voters in a referendum.

Two consecutively elected legislatures must approve the proposed amendment before it can go on a referendum.

Other proposed amendments would:

—Extend the terms of state senators from four to six years and for representatives from two to four years.

—Lower the voting age from 21 to 20.

file Wednesday and said conferences with party leaders in Hamilton and 22 other counties reassured him that he should go ahead with plans to run, despite the party committee's decision.

McIlwain was the only announced candidate when the committee met. Reams had announced for lieutenant governor, but was tapped for the top spot, with party chairman William Coleman getting the endorsement for lieutenant governor.

Reams said he would stay out of another primary contest which could turn into a sharp fight, between U. S. Rep. Robert Sweeney and former Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy for the nomination for attorney general. Sweeney was endorsed Saturday over McElroy, his former boss.

hours later in Wellsville and turned over to Jefferson County authorities. They denied knowledge of the robbery, but were identified by Cunningham. His possessions were recovered, including a wrist watch, high school ring, gloves and $2.31 in cash.

Fifteen persons were indicted by the Jefferson Grand Jury, including two Toronto area men.

Charles Mosti of Toronto was indicted on a charge of tending to contribute to the delinquency of a 16-year-old Toronto girl with whom he allegedly engaged in illicit sexual relations on Jan. 1.

Calvin Lawrence, 24, of Toronto R. D. 1 was indicted on four counts of issuing checks with intent to defraud.

Hearing Slated On Delinquency

Wayne E. Hupp, 21, of Canton St. is scheduled for a hearing Feb. 3 at 1 p. m. before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin in Lisbon on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old East End youth.

Hupp also has been charged by East Liverpool police with furnsihing false information, but a hearing probably won't be held in Municipal Court until the disposition of the Juvenile Court charge.

The Gardendale man was cited on two charges Saturday after notifying police that his auto had been stolen late Friday night from his home. Police located the auto in a service station lot at E. 3rd and Washington Sts. about an hour later.

The 16-year-old admitted taking the auto and police also learned that he and Hupp had attended a drive-in theater Friday night after which the East End boy had been let out near Thompson Park.

Westinghouse Given Multimillion Pact

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. announced today it has been awarded a multimillion dollar contract to build a 700,000 kilowatt nuclear generating plant near Hartsville, S.C.

The plant, along with improvements to the site, is scheduled for completion in May, 1970. The entire project is expected to cost $75 million.

The plant will be built for the Carolina Power & Light Co., adjacent to an existing 185,000-kilowatt coal-fired unit at the H. B. Robinson Steam Electric plant.

House

Metcalf, D-Mont, suggested that eight-year terms for senators be included in the proposal.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he is opposed to requiring House members to resign their seats if they wish to run for the Senate. He said the amendment ought to be put into effect as soon as ratified by the states.

Eleven Democrats and 13 Republicans indicated they are presently inclined against four-year terms.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said that four-year tenures "would make for one party government for sure" because the administration could not be held under control in midterm.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., said the House members "were given two-year terms to make the House responsive to the will of the people, to keep its members in complete sympathy with the people, so that when the people change, the legislative body changes."

Seventeen Democrats and nine Republicans said they would favor four-year terms if elections were held in other than presidential years or if one-half the House members were elected every two years.

Even Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., who introduced the President's proposal, said he thinks half of the House members should be elected every two years.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, a former House member, said he can sympathize with representatives who have to begin campaigning again shortly after they get elected.

"But if we are going to have four-year terms for them, the elections ought to be staggered," he said.

Auto Fires Answered In Period Of Minutes

Two auto fires in the East and West Ends were answered within six minutes Monday afternoon.

Firemen from Central Station were called to the top of May St. at 5:24 p. m. when a carburetor backfire caused a fire in an auto operated by Marilyn Winters of 1019 Florence St.

There was no air filter on the engine, firemen said. The blaze damaged the carburetor and paint on the hood.

East End firemen were called to the 1200 block on Pennsylvania Ave. at 5:30 p. m. when transmission fluid ignited in a car operated by Isetta Young. It was out on arrival, they said.

Note The Elastic Feature

The United States will spend $112.8 billion in the year beginning next July 1. It may spend more, but that will be talked about later.

President Johnson has taken full advantage of the mysticism that has grown up around the federal budget. It has ceased to be a cut-and-dried proposition in arithmetic and turned into a January incantation about the all-pervading spirit of the welfare state.

Arithmetic has little to do with federal budgeting these days. The budgeteers, themselves, are vague about the arithmetic. They explain when pressed for statistics that they use two or more ways of compiling the statistics, therefore they always will come up with two or more ways of telling what they think they know.

The net effect is that only experts know any more what the experts are talking about—and the experts never agree. Yet, the purpose of the federal budget was not to cue in experts on other experts' budgetary expertise but to keep the general public informed about the fiscal state of the Union.

THE JANUARY budget message is part and parcel of the presidential message on the State of the Union. But it has become so baffling in its entirety and so obscure in its particulars that the general public cannot comprehend it.

Moreover, attempts to explain it with visual aids and generalizations are fruitless. The experts might as well be trying to make the understandable as to explain to the ordinary run of U.S. citizens the vagaries of $112.8 billion balanced against the sum of $111 billion, leaving a probable difference of $1.8 billion, except this doesn't mean anything because the war commitment in Viet Nam, where no war has been declared, will run into untold billions, which will then be added to outgo.

If this happens, the federal debt will be more than $321.8 billion, which is what it will be if it doesn't happen, except that it might be more than that even though nothing happens at all, except the inevitable growth of the welfare state. Any questions?

Growth is inevitable and unstoppable because it is not permissible to interfere with it in any way, shape, or form. This is where federal budget mysticism really gets ordinary citizens lost in a cloud of confusion.

THE ONLY budget ordinary citizens know anything about are made by fitting spending into an over-all sum of expected income. Spending and income must balance. There is no choice.

But in federal budgeting, there is no balance required. The government decides what it is going to spend, which is more than it is going to earn, and adds the deficit to the federal debt. This is not budgeting.

It is elastic financing.

Satisfactory Job

Though complaints have been heard—some vociferous—it is our opinion, and the opinion of many others with whom we have talked, that the administration and the city employes under its guidance did a first -rate job in battling the heavy weekend snow.

Clearing and removing 17 or more inches of snow represents a herculean task. Some undesirable situations are certain to arise during such work, but over all, in fairness to those who labored long and hard to dig us out, the performance could be termed quite satisfactory.

One thing that does seem in order, however, to eliminate whatever flaws that may have been encountered in "Operation Snow Removal" would be an immediate reappraisal of strong and weak points in equipment and personnel, the over-all approach to the problem, etc. Such a review would be in the interest of an even more effective cleanup when the next heavy fall strikes.

Lessons always can be learned from weather rampages such as that of Saturday and Sunday.

Not Ready For A Merit Badge

One of the hottest fights in Congress this year is going to take place on one of the coldest issues—coldest as far as any real effect on the nation is concerned.

It is whether Congress will repeal Sec. 14B in the Labor-Management Act—the section that gives states the right to outlaw union shops.

As far as any effect on management-labor relations is concerned, repeal of the section would be small. No industrially important state has outlawed union shops. On the contrary, in industrial states that have settled the matter in referendums the unions consistently have been able to carry the day against repeal.

Nevertheless, the issue of repealing 14B has turned into a hot fight because it has turned into a test of strength. President Johnson asked for repeal a year ago and again this year.

He did this in payment of a political debt to labor union leaders who have supported him and made repeal of 14B part of the price for their friendship. When Congress failed to repeal it last year, they accused Mr. Johnson of not having tried heard enough.

Were they correct in assuming he could have tried harder but didn't?

The question would be hard to answer. But it is obvious that the knowledgeable politician in the White House knows what everybody else knows—that 14B is a test issue to determine organized labor's political status.

It is not quite ready for the merit badge it is asking for; i.e., a license to ride roughshod over everything that might get in its way. It still has to account for some of the things that have raised questions about its attitude and tactics. Mike Quill, who engineered the New York City transit strike, is its latest embarrassment.

If organized labor had nothing more to worry about than the continued presence in federal statutes of Sec. 14B, it would have no worries at all.

Not The Real Thing

By Truman Twill

Herbert Marshall's death in Hollywood at 75 was a double sock for some of us who forget the reality behind the image.

Sock No. 2 was to realize that this actor who made control of all difficulty seem possible was no more able to control his own difficulty than any of the rest of us.

To a remarkable degree, we have confused the play-actor image with the real thing. We have compared the Herbert Marshalls who walked urbanely through a life that never was with ourselves stumbling awkwardly through a life that is gratingly real — and given ourselves the worst of it.

Men have fixed their enraptured gaze on beauty queens and sex goddesses in doctored-up images in movies and television and overlooked the difference between make-believe they represented and the real thing.

Women have swooned over the glamorous males of never-never land, from Francis X. Bushman down to the current crop of holler guys with bushman hair-dos.

They have been so carried away by images fixed in their mind's eye by dramatic coaches, makeup artists, writers and stunt men that the sight of their real-life husbands slogging through foul-ups and frustrations has distressed them.

In even the drabbest tasks, there has been created an illusion of triumph over adversity and hum-drumness. Even a clogged sink yields to the magic of the camera, the director and the technical crew.

Suaveness is Herbert Marshall gimping through a drawing room scene. The spirit that built America is actors in white hats getting the better of actors in black hats, both sides riding rented horses through scenes rigged for the show.

Spiritually is a crooner in a cassock, humor is a gagster reading other men's jokes off a cue card, history is 2,000 extras going through rehearsed motions on command, pathos is a precocious kid crying on his way to the bank by way of kindergarten and heroism is a character actor writhing on the point of a pasteboard spear.

We'll miss Herbert Marshall. The situations he used to be able to make plausible with that clipped accent and that little crooked smile!

Riddle For Science

Airplanes, drills and cameras have been used to discover and explore Etruscan tombs hidden beneath the Italian countryside. All this scientific probing only has deepened the mystery, the National Geographic Society says.

No one knows where the Etruscans came from. Their mighty city - states dominated most of the Italian peninsula more than 2,000 years ago, then vanished from history's pages following defeat by the Romans. Etruscan language defies translation.

Tombs with brilliantly - painted walls are furnished with offerings in precious metals, cast bronze and jet - black clay. These hold the only tantalizing clues to Etruscan culture.

Centuries before Rome emerged as a power, the Etruscans transformed a backward land into a wealthy realm called Etruria, with great buildings and exquisite works of art. Etruscans were the first outstanding architects and engineers in Italy. They perfected the use of the arch for gateways, galleries and drains.

Mining, craftsmanship, and trade in iron, bronze, gold, and other metals made the Etruscans rich. They dealt extensively with the Greeks and borrowed freely from Greek art.

Odd Facts

Of all the different kinds of contests, advertising and otherwise, staged in the U. S. each year, more than 60 per cent of all the participants are women — with the percentage often reaching as high as 75. For this reason, sponsors and advertising agencies direct most fo their contests at the distaff side of the family.

The familiar American term, "The 400," referring to the exclusive social set of any place, sprang from a comment by Ward McAllister, a New York society leader, who stated in about 1889 that only about this number of people were actually "in society" in that city.

Some of the oldest portions of our Bible may have been written as early as 1200 B.C., although there is doubt as to when writing began among the Hebrews. Before the most ancient portions were written down, they were handed on from generation to generation by oral tradition.

According to law, the owner of land on which buried treasure is found has no right to it. It belongs to the finder. Of course, this applies only to coins and valuables buried or hidden on the land, and not to ore or other natural deposits.

Brass Curtain Covers Up Mistakes

By Victor Riesel

A brass curtain has been lowered by Pentagon and State Department officials around the slow-motion Viet Nam supply system.

The folds of that curtain are being used to gag union officials, who have learned of lethargy, lack of planning, corruption and rule-book inefficiency now slowing the flow of equipment, weapons and food to our troops and allies.

Victor Riesel

Because of ancient Army regulations, millions of dollars are being wasted weekly. Cargo ships which should be speeding the oceans, are idling at anchor. Seamen who could be working, and have volunteered and have been rejected, are stewing on hot decks in a steaming sun for 50 and 60 empty days at a stretch. And troops go without ammunition, food and tools.

All this — and far more—has been learned by waterfront union leaders. But the Navy and the State Department this past week forbade them to report their findings to the public.

Since the Viet Cong gets word of all this to Hanoi long before U.S. intelligence gets its reports to Washington — State Department and Pentagon brass obviously are seeking to withhold the story from the American public and from President Johnson himself.

UNLOADING OF VITAL CARGO in South Vietnamese ports is notoriously leisurely. Though several years ago it became obvious that huge supplies would have to pour into the mudbank bays and ports, the military did little planning. Even now slender women, weighing less than 100 pounds, carry 200-pound bags of cargo. Corruption is more rampant than malaria. But everybody says little can be done.

Result is that the Army uses its own longshoremen gangs to unload supplies. They are short-handed. So they work one hatch at a time. But they can get help—and not from the South Vietnamese flesh-peddlers either.

Crews, belonging to the National Maritime Union (NMU), headed by "Big Joe" Curran, have offered to help empty the holds of ships they manned across the oceans.

Their assistance would be of gigantic help in solving problems on which International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) president, Ted Gleason, and four of his veteran ILA colleagues have been working in Saigon for over a month.

But the Army says no.

THE MILITARY turns down the American seamen because the regulations say that no civilian shall unload the supplies.

Yet the American merchant sailors are doing nothing on deck. Their ships are held out in the harbor, or in Cam Ranh Bay or Qui Nhon Bay or as far as Manila. The vessels sometimes hang over, idle, and fully-loaded, for 50 or 60 days.

The seamen get mighty little shore leave. They get no mail. They have virtually no recreation. The USO won't let them in when on shore because they're not military.

So they are eager to do something especially to help their fighting brethren. But the Army says no.

Thus the ships that manage to get into port are held in their berths many days longer than it would take to turn them around if the brass permitted the American seamen to pitch-in.

THE LONGER IT TAKES to unload these vessels, the longer the ever-arriving freighters must stay "on the hook." This is costing the U.S. many millions of dollars.

The government must pay an average of $5,000 a day for each ship while at sea. This is a charge under the charter arrangement. So, if there are 50 or more ships idling in the harbor or bay for 50 or more days at some $5,000 daily, it comes to somewhat more than the take on a charity bingo game night.

To take a first-hand look at the maze and mess, Joe Curran has dispatched two NMU officials to Saigon. With their experience they may yet show the military how to two in World War II Liberty Ships, anchor them and turn them into waterborn tool shops and "reefer" vessels (refrigerator ships).

It takes planning. There has been mighty little.

Small wonder the brass' curtain has been rung down on that corner of the China Sea.

As a citizen and taxpayer of East Liverpool, I would like to thank Mr. Joseph Coons of WOHI for the good editorial about the street department and snow removal.

I sure agree with Mr. Coons this time, which I don't always do.

If we had more wide awake citizens things might be different in City Hall and get someone to run the street department the way it should be instead of promises.

I expressed my views last year about this time about their excuses and promises.

I live in a location on North Side where they never do anything to streets unless forced to.

The garbage truck got in a ditch and plugged up the sewer. The department wouldn't clean it out. Now we have ice all over the street under the snow.

Wishful Thinking

By David Lawrence

No Quick Viet War End Expected

If logic were the controlling influence today in formulating the military policy of the United States in Viet Nam, there wouldn't be any doubt about the next move now that the "truce" is over and the "peace offensive" has fallen on deaf ears.

David Lawrence

But the logic which calls not only for a resumption of bombing raids but for an intensification beyond what has been done before is unpalatable politically. The word "politically" covers international and diplomatic aspects as well as domestic considerations. Evidence mounts that many people—inside and outside of Congress—are doing a lot of wishful thinking and feel that there is some miraculous way to attain a quick ending of the conflict if only the other major governments would get together to quell the warfare, just as happened in the Congo a few years ago with the aid and supervision of the United Nations.

Certainly the Viet Nam war could be stopped in a week if the U.N. had the backing of the Soviet Union and various Communist satellites which have an influence with the Red Chinese government in Peking.

Obviously the "peace offensive" by President Johnson had a worthy purpose—to show the rest of the world that the United States really wants peace—but it would have been surprising if the North Vietnamese had responded to such a move instituted by one government, especially their principal adversary.

THE UNITED STATES, however, is on the spot militarily. Before the truce it conducted a "limited bombing" of North Viet Nam. Is the alternative then to be unlimited bombing, or is there a middle course?

Certainly it would not be surprising to see the United States step up its bombing and then, before taking any extreme measures, it could decide to await the reaction of the North Vietnamese as well as the Soviet Union.

One thing seems clear—the Moscow regime isn't anxious to see an enlarged war in which most assuredly Russia would become involved if only to supply financial and military help to the North Vietnamese beyond anything undertaken heretofore. This is an expense the Communists do not relish.

Meanwhile, inside the United States it appears that the Viet Nam War is becoming more and more unpopular every day and that what the group of members of Congress said recently on their return from Southeast Asia has conveyed an impression of frustration—a puzzlement over what to do next. There's considerable worry about how public opinion would react to an intensified war and an increase to 300,000 or even 500,000 American troops in Viet Nam.

It's possible, of course, for the United States to let the Viet Nam War drag on for years while furnishing a limited number of men and fighting a defensive war.

MILITARY MEN think this would be wasteful of American lives and that the smallest loss would be incurred by intensifying the war now even if it means destroying a substantial part of Hanoi itself.

Warning would be given of forthcoming raids so that the civilian population could withdraw temporarily. The objective of the bombing would be to destroy supply lines and bases periodically, while mobilizing most of the American troops along the seacoast to protect the largest part of the South Vietnamese people against guerilla attacks.

Most of the military men both here and in Saigon feel, however, that any decisions made will be political in the sense that they will be geared to the possibility of an international peace conference of some kind. The initiative is expected to come from some of the so-called "non-aligned" powers. Basically the United States wants to get out of the war honorably and with the rest of the world convinced that this country will come to the aid of small nations whenever they are attacked by aggressors as was the case in South Korea and Viet Nam.

FOR DIPLOMATIC PURPOSES the United States has made its point. A mechanism that might bring about an armistice and a peace conference is available through the United Nations. The key to this lies in Moscow and not Peking. For, once the Soviets determine that the war in Viet Nam must come to an end, the Red Chinese will have no choice but to go along with that decision and let the peace conference develop the best compromise possible.

Note The Elastic Feature

The United States will spend $112.8 billion in the year beginning next July 1. It may spend more, but that will be talked about later.

As a citizen and taxpayer of East Liverpool, I would like to thank Mr. Joseph Coons of WOHI for the good editorial about the street department and snow removal.

I sure agree with Mr. Coons this time, which I don't always do.

If we had more wide awake citizens things might be different in City Hall and get someone to run the street department the way it should be instead of promises.

I expressed my views last year about this time about their excuses and promises.

I live in a location on North Side where they never do anything to streets unless forced to.

The garbage truck got in a ditch and plugged up the sewer. The department wouldn't clean it out. Now we have ice all over the street under the snow.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Many people feel this serious problem should be dealt with.

Other cities have taken action. Cincinnati for one. They hired a crew of men to shoot these filth - causing birds, and did it in a systematic elimination program.

Let us encourage this thoughtful citizen with good ideas by giving our names and making it known we are in favor of her suggestions.

Wishful Thinking

By David Lawrence

No Quick Viet War End Expected

If logic were the controlling influence today in formulating the military policy of the United States in Viet Nam, there wouldn't be any doubt about the next move now that the "truce" is over and the "peace offensive" has fallen on deaf ears.

David Lawrence

But the logic which calls not only for a resumption of bombing raids but for an intensification beyond what has been done before is unpalatable politically. The word "politically" covers international and diplomatic aspects as well as domestic considerations. Evidence mounts that many people—inside and outside of Congress—are doing a lot of wishful thinking and feel that there is some miraculous way to attain a quick ending of the conflict if only the other major governments would get together to quell the warfare, just as happened in the Congo a few years ago with the aid and supervision of the United Nations.

Certainly the Viet Nam war could be stopped in a week if the U.N. had the backing of the Soviet Union and various Communist satellites which have an influence with the Red Chinese government in Peking.

Obviously the "peace offensive" by President Johnson had a worthy purpose—to show the rest of the world that the United States really wants peace—but it would have been surprising if the North Vietnamese had responded to such a move instituted by one government, especially their principal adversary.

THE UNITED STATES, however, is on the spot militarily. Before the truce it conducted a "limited bombing" of North Viet Nam. Is the alternative then to be unlimited bombing, or is there a middle course?

Certainly it would not be surprising to see the United States step up its bombing and then, before taking any extreme measures, it could decide to await the reaction of the North Vietnamese as well as the Soviet Union.

One thing seems clear—the Moscow regime isn't anxious to see an enlarged war in which most assuredly Russia would become involved if only to supply financial and military help to the North Vietnamese beyond anything undertaken heretofore. This is an expense the Communists do not relish.

Meanwhile, inside the United States it appears that the Viet Nam War is becoming more and more unpopular every day and that what the group of members of Congress said recently on their return from Southeast Asia has conveyed an impression of frustration—a puzzlement over what to do next. There's considerable worry about how public opinion would react to an intensified war and an increase to 300,000 or even 500,000 American troops in Viet Nam.

It's possible, of course, for the United States to let the Viet Nam War drag on for years while furnishing a limited number of men and fighting a defensive war.

MILITARY MEN think this would be wasteful of American lives and that the smallest loss would be incurred by intensifying the war now even if it means destroying a substantial part of Hanoi itself.

Warning would be given of forthcoming raids so that the civilian population could withdraw temporarily. The objective of the bombing would be to destroy supply lines and bases periodically, while mobilizing most of the American troops along the seacoast to protect the largest part of the South Vietnamese people against guerilla attacks.

Most of the military men both here and in Saigon feel, however, that any decisions made will be political in the sense that they will be geared to the possibility of an international peace conference of some kind. The initiative is expected to come from some of the so-called "non-aligned" powers. Basically the United States wants to get out of the war honorably and with the rest of the world convinced that this country will come to the aid of small nations whenever they are attacked by aggressors as was the case in South Korea and Viet Nam.

FOR DIPLOMATIC PURPOSES the United States has made its point. A mechanism that might bring about an armistice and a peace conference is available through the United Nations. The key to this lies in Moscow and not Peking. For, once the Soviets determine that the war in Viet Nam must come to an end, the Red Chinese will have no choice but to go along with that decision and let the peace conference develop the best compromise possible.

Navy, Marine, Air Force Views Due On Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators get the Navy, Marine and Air Force view of the Viet Nam war today after hearing Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson outline the possibilities of the war exploding into a much broader conflict.

On the House side of the Capitol, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara continues his marathon testimony to congressional committees after saying the quick U.S. build-up in Viet Nam had no parallel.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said Gen. Johnson included his appraisal in secret testimony Monday before senators weighing the administration's request for $12.76 billion in additional Viet Nam funds this year.

Johnson, Russell said, found "the over-all military situation had improved somewhat over what it was a year ago." Johnson gave much of the credit to "the morale of the Vietnamese people, which has improved greatly," Russell said.

The Vietnamese, the general said, got a big lift from the growing number of American soldiers arriving.

But Russell made clear that Johnson's testimony wasn't all bright.

"Johnson pointed out the possibilities of the war developing into a much wider conflict and defined more clearly the difficulties our soldiers are encountering," Russell said.

Russell said the witnesses today would be Adm. David L. M Donald, chief of naval operations; Gen. John P. McConnell, Air Force chief of staff, and Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., Marine Corps commandant.

McNamara told a Senate-Housing Committee Monday "never before in the history of the world has any nation done what we did.

"When the Viet Cong build-up began in the spring and when their monsoon offensive began, we put 100,000 men into Viet Nam in about 120 days."

Young, Collins Named New Gemini Astronauts

By RONALD THOMPSON
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — The space agency now has three two-man astronaut crews preparing to perform tricky rendezvous and link-up maneuvers in space that must be mastered before Americans head to the moon.

The latest astronauts to draw flight assignments are Navy Cmdr. John W. Young, a veteran of the first Gemini mission, and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins, a rookie who itches to try his hand at space walking.

It was Young who took a corned beef sandwich along on the Gemini 3 flight last year. He was reprimanded as a result.

Young will be the command pilot on Gemini 10. Collins will be the pilot who would take a space stroll during the two- or three-day flight, if a stroll is scheduled.

Gemini project officials hope to wind up the 12-flight program by the end of the year at about the same time the three-man Apollo flights begin. The five remaining Gemini flights are to include rendezvous and docking with unmanned orbiting vehicles.

The space agency is tentatively aiming at a mid-March launch for Gemini 8 during which Air Force Maj. David R. Scott will take a 90-minute space walk, long enough for one trip around the world. Command pilot is Neil A. Armstrong, the first civilian to get a flight assignment.

Civilian Elliot M. See Jr. and Air Force Capt. Charles A. Bassett II are scheduled to head into space about two months later aboard Gemini 9 on a similar docking mission. Bassett is also slated for a space walk, using a back pack for maneuvering instead of a space gun as Scott will use.

Gemini 10 is officially on the books for the third quarter of this year.

"Details of the flight are still rather sketchy," said a space agency spokesman in announcing the selection of Young and Collins Monday. "It will involve rendezvous and will last two or three days."

He said it was not certain whether there would be a space walk by Collins.

Collins said in a recent interview that he would rather have the opportunity to take a space walk than be the command pilot.

Navy Cmdr. James A. Lovell Jr., who recently flew for 14 days aboard Gemini 7, and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., who has never flown in space, were named backup crewmen for Young and Collins.

Young, 35, took a three-orbit flight with Air Force Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom aboard Gemini 3, the nation's first two-man space flight.

Supreme Court Asked To Outlaw Poll Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government asks the Supreme Court today to outlaw poll taxes as a requirement for voting in state and local elections.

"The principle of a tax on the right to vote is constitutionally indefensible," the government said in a brief filed with the court before a hearing on the Virginia poll tax.

Five Virginia Negroes are asking the justices to reverse a lower court and strike down the Virginia poll tax as a form of discrimination against poor people.

On this ground alone, the government said, the Virginia poll tax should be declared invalid. However, the government said, a more fundamental issue is at stake:

"Whether any tax levied on voting, and carrying the sanction of disenfranchisement for nonpayment, is constitutionally permissible. We urge that it is not . . .

"This basic vice of the poll tax system cannot be cured — as could, perhaps, a law that merely discriminated against poor persons — by exempting indigents from the burden of the law . . .

"The poll tax is invalid, we submit, not merely in its indidence and in the details of its administration, but in its conception . . ."

U. S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall, a Negro, is representing the government.

The poll tax has been abolished by the 24th Amendment to the U. S. Constituion as a qualificaion for voing in federal elecions. Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas retain the poll tax for state and local elections.

Once again the Supreme Court is being asked to pass on the power of states to fix voter qualifications. It is also being asked to review its 1937 decision upholding the since-repealed Georgia poll tax and its provision making payment a prerequisite to voting.

In November 1964 a three-judge U. S. District Court in Alexandria sustained the Virginia poll tax, saying "We are not at liberty to deviate" from the 1937 ruling.

The five Negroes then appealed to the Supreme Court. Four, Annie E. Harper, Gladys A. Berry and Curtis Burr and his wife, Myrtle, are residents of Fairfax Couny. The fifth is Evelyn Butts of Norfolk.

The Virginia tax, $1.50 a year, is levied against all adult Virginians and must be paid up for the preceding three years before voting.

Judge Upholds Ohio Junkyard Fence Law

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge LeRoy F. Kelly upheld Ohio's junkyard fencing law Monday in its first test.

The law, which became effective Jan. 1, 1964, provides that "eyesores" be screened from sight of highways by high fencing.

The test came in a suit by Henry Stanziano, owner of Commercial Auto Wrecking Co. in Lorain, challenging constitutionality of the law. He contended that he operated a scrap iron yard rather than a junkyard and that the law violated his constitutional rights.

In ruling that the law was constitutional, Judge Kelly held that Stanziano does operate a junkyard, as defined by statute.

Midland Auto Struck By Rig

A 23-year-old Midland man escaped injury early today when his auto was bumped by a tractor-trailer rig in the right-angle turn at Harvey Ave. and Elizabeth St., police reported.

The mishap at 12:41 a.m. involved a westbound 1964 convertible driven by Blenard Adkins of 122 7th St., Midland, and a 1963 model rig operated by Donald L. Holmes, 30, of Dalton, Ohio, officers said.

Holmes said one of the tires on his trailer struck Adkins' car as the two vehicles passed on the curve. There was damage to the left rear of Adkins' auto and a cut on the trailer's tire, police said. Both drivers estimated their speed at 10 miles an hour.

A parked auto was damaged slightly in a mishap at W. 6th St. and Peach Alley Monday at 2:11 p.m., police reported.

Kinzek reported he was maneuvering into a parking spot when his vehicle struck the auto, damaging the right tail light. The truck was undamaged.

Supreme Court Asked To Outlaw Poll Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government asks the Supreme Court today to outlaw poll taxes as a requirement for voting in state and local elections.

"The principle of a tax on the right to vote is constitutionally indefensible," the government said in a brief filed with the court before a hearing on the Virginia poll tax.

Five Virginia Negroes are asking the justices to reverse a lower court and strike down the Virginia poll tax as a form of discrimination against poor people.

On this ground alone, the government said, the Virginia poll tax should be declared invalid. However, the government said, a more fundamental issue is at stake:

"Whether any tax levied on voting, and carrying the sanction of disenfranchisement for nonpayment, is constitutionally permissible. We urge that it is not . . .

"This basic vice of the poll tax system cannot be cured — as could, perhaps, a law that merely discriminated against poor persons — by exempting indigents from the burden of the law . . .

"The poll tax is invalid, we submit, not merely in its indidence and in the details of its administration, but in its conception . . ."

U. S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall, a Negro, is representing the government.

The poll tax has been abolished by the 24th Amendment to the U. S. Constituion as a qualificaion for voing in federal elecions. Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas retain the poll tax for state and local elections.

Once again the Supreme Court is being asked to pass on the power of states to fix voter qualifications. It is also being asked to review its 1937 decision upholding the since-repealed Georgia poll tax and its provision making payment a prerequisite to voting.

In November 1964 a three-judge U. S. District Court in Alexandria sustained the Virginia poll tax, saying "We are not at liberty to deviate" from the 1937 ruling.

The five Negroes then appealed to the Supreme Court. Four, Annie E. Harper, Gladys A. Berry and Curtis Burr and his wife, Myrtle, are residents of Fairfax Couny. The fifth is Evelyn Butts of Norfolk.

The Virginia tax, $1.50 a year, is levied against all adult Virginians and must be paid up for the preceding three years before voting.

Judge Upholds Ohio Junkyard Fence Law

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge LeRoy F. Kelly upheld Ohio's junkyard fencing law Monday in its first test.

The law, which became effective Jan. 1, 1964, provides that "eyesores" be screened from sight of highways by high fencing.

The test came in a suit by Henry Stanziano, owner of Commercial Auto Wrecking Co. in Lorain, challenging constitutionality of the law. He contended that he operated a scrap iron yard rather than a junkyard and that the law violated his constitutional rights.

In ruling that the law was constitutional, Judge Kelly held that Stanziano does operate a junkyard, as defined by statute.

namese soon after the lunar New Year truce ended Sunday.

The probes so far have made almost no contact with the insurgents, and a government spokesman said the Allied forces have "completely lost" the North Vietnamese regiments known to have been in the country since before Christmas.

The Viet Cong, in their first major action since the lunar New Year truce, made an intensive 15-minute mortar attack before dawn on the U.S. Marine base at Da Nang, 380 miles northeast of Saigon. Three Americans and two Vietnamese were killed, and 11 Americans and 14 Vietnamese were wounded.

The barrage of 42 rounds missed a half dozen jet fighter-bombers parked on the strip but damaged several vehicles and a mobile crane.

The shells included big 120mm mortars, 35-pounders only recently reported in the Communist arsenal. Nine of these mini-ature blockbusters, which are fired from equipment weighing about 1,800 pounds, landed near a Hawk antiaircraft missile site.

A hit on a missile site would have been regarded as a major propaganda achievement for the guerrillas.

U.S. military sources said the 120mm mortar presented a new threat to the base because of their range, about four miles. The Viet Cong have used 60mm and 81mm mortars in similar attacks.

The guerrillas apparently slipped through the base's outlying defenses in the darkness. They ended the attack when the Marines began a counter-mortar barrage, firing more than 100 81mm shells at the suspected enemy positions.

"The Viet Cong never fired a round after we started," said Maj. King D. Thatenhurst of the Twentynine Palms, Calif., executive officer of the 1st Marine Battalion.

The Vietnamese war report for the past 24 hours listed only 20 minor harassments and one act of terrorism, the murder of a village councilman in the Thu Duc district just outside Saigon.

Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan announced the start of a major diplomatic campaign by his government to reopen the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina. He told a Tokyo news conference broadcast throughout Japan that he was assigning a veteran diplomat, Masayuki Yokoyama, 73, to visit North Viet Nam and other countries to seek support of the proposal.

Britain, which was cochairman with the Soviet Union of the Geneva meeting, has been unable to persuade the Russians to reconvene the talks. Japanese Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina visited Moscow last week and also apparently failed to budge the Soviets.

The United Arab Republic was reported making a new effort to intervene on behalf of 26 Americans held captive by the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese. A Foreign Ministry official met separately in Cairo Monday with U. S. Ambassador Lucius Battle and North Vietnamese Ambassador Nguyen Xuan.

Egyptian sources said a week ago that Hanoi had rejected an Egyptian overture on behalf of the Unted States to look out for American prisoners in return for U. S. guarantees of good treatment for Viet Cong and North Vietnamese held by the South Vietnamese.

the director reported. Two city street crews worked until 9 last night and a third quit work at 6.

MAYOR George E. Willshaw said he received several telephone calls yesterday from householders commending the city on its snow - removal work. One was from a Pleasant Heights woman who said the secondary street on which she lives was cleared of snow over the weekend "for the first time in any snow storm in 20 years."

Vodrey said incinerator department crews completed their usual Monday garbage collection rounds yesterday, except for about 25 to 30 houses which they could not reach because of the snow.

"I think the incinerator employes did a commendable job," the director said. "Their work was complicated by the fact much of the garbage was frozen in the cans and had to be broken loose before it could be carried away."

All city parking lots are clear, at least to the extent that they can be used by motorists. The director said they were scraped Sunday night. Traffic rapidly was returning to normal in the downtown areas, but motorists had difficulty in some snow-covered parking spots.

In many instances, city equipment cleared the curb areas over the weekend and then snow was shoved onto the streets again yesterday when business district sidewalks were cleared.

address nearly two weeks ago. The President said the United States is ready to discuss and consider "the views of any group." The reference was broad enough to include the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas. Johnson had said previously this issue could be resolved.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., outspoken critic of administration policy in Viet Nam, agreed with Fulbright.

Morse said in a telephone interview, "There is, in my judgment, no hope for any peaceful settlement in South Viet Nam until the United States is ready to negotiate with the Viet Cong in the South and the North Vietnamese in the North. They are two separate, distinct groups."

Reps. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., and Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., denounced any possibility of negotiating with the Viet Cong as a major party.

Hebert, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, called the Viet Cong "just a bunch of bandits."

He said: "I don't feel the VC are in this picture at all. The representative government is the Hanoi government, and all dealings should be with them."

Zablocki, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said, "We don't recognize them as the representative group. They were not elected to the office.

"I would subscribe to the policy of Johnson that dealings must be with Hanoi, and if Hanoi chooses to bring in any other parties such as representatives of the Viet Cong or Peking, that is up to Hanoi."

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said he wasn't aware that Viet Cong representation was a problem. He said the only stumbling block to negotiations of which he was aware was an apparent lack of response from Hanoi to recent peace feelers by the United States.

"The President on down has not identified any stumbling block of this sort," Ford said. "Maybe Mr. Fulbright has some additional information that I don't have."

Asked about the lull in the bombing of North Viet Nam targets, Fulbright said:

"I think the resumption of the bombing would mean that we have given up any hope of a settlement and it (the war) would proceed to higher, ever-increasing escalation."

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, speaking Monday night at a Democratic Party function in New York, said the Communists had tried unsuccessfully to undermine the U.S. peace effort.

"By their refusal to come to the conference table they have exposed their warlike, aggressive ambitions," Humphrey said.

Civil Service Ruling Slated After Appeal

The Municipal Civil Service Commission indicated it will issue a ruling within two or three days after hearing testimony Monday night at City Hall in an appeal filed by Patrolman Leonard E. Richard from a payless suspension he was given as a result of a three-way traffic crash on the Freeway Dec. 18.

The three-member commission listened to about two hours of testimony and argument from counsel in the hearing last night in the Council chamber. It indicated it will issue a written ruling in two or three days, sending copies to all the parties concerned.

The commission is comprised of Howard Tullis, chairman, Donal I. Burcham and Angelo Fiorello.

Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey decreed the suspension on Jan. 12, upholding charges filed against the officer by Chief A. J. Radeschi. Richard's suspension began on Jan. 14.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper appeared as counsel for the city and Richard was represented by Charles Lang. Also attending were Vodrey, Radeschi, Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and P. K. Calhoon, the commission's clerk.

Richard said the cruiser he was operating was struck from the rear as he attempted to make a left turn through a divider on the four - lane road. A car driven by a Cleveland man halted behind the cruiser. It was hit by an Akron man's auto and shoved forward into the cruiser.

The Akron man subsequently was fined in Municipal Court on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Threat To Steel Industry Cited By Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Pennsylvania congressman says the steel industry is threatened by exports of molybdenum which is used in making alloys.

Rep. John H. Dent, a Democrat, said he was told by the Latrobe Steel Co. that it will be forced to shut down its furnaces at the end of February unless more of the metal is made available to it.

Dent has urged the White House to curtail exports. In a telegram to a White House aide, Henry W. Wilson, he said curtailing exports would help the balance of payments.

Dent said government plans to dispose of five million pounds of molybdenum from the national stockpile is too little and may come too late. He charged the government has in the past disposed of the metal without enough concern for the American consumer.

The congressman said the only country complaining about a shortage was the United States, yet he said we upped our exports to some European countries recently by more than 1,000 per cent.

Only three players hit two National League home runs against Dodger Sandy Koufa during 1965. They were Dick Stuart of the Phillies, Mack Jones of the Braves and Cap Peterson of the Giants.

Driver Penalized For 1965 Charge

EAST PALESTINE — Charles F. McCreary of Youngstown, cited in April 1965 for driving while intoxicated, was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to seven days in jail Monday by County Judge Herbert Arfman.

McCreary originally had pleaded not guilty and requested a jury trial. Later he changed his request, agreeing to a regular hearing before the judge.

After yesterday's verdict, however, he asked a stay of execution pending an appeal.

'Snow' Verdict Given In Akron Man's Trial

LISBON — The attorney of an Akron man charged with burglary notified Common Pleas Court Monday he would not be able to appear in Lisbon for trial because of weather conditions.

The defendant, Ronald Grady, whose last known address was 39 Bates St., was indicted Jan. 10, 1964, on a charge of breaking and entering an East Liverpool tavern. At arraignment, 10 days later, he entered a plea of not guilty.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Stubbornness Curbed By Punishment

Between the ages of two and four or five is the period when the child is most likely to be negative, stubborn. During this period he may often say, "I won't," when you say, "You must," when a fight may be on with your will matched against his; and he may often win. If, for instance, you tell him to close the door and he refuses to do so he might continue to refuse though you beat him almost to death.

Dr. Garry Myers

Of course, you could seize him and hold his hand on the door knob and then push him with the door, or you could just push him bodily against the door. But he would not have closed the door then, he merely would have been a robot with which you closed the door.

—:—

IF HE had deliberately slammed the door hard, a stinging slap with your bare flat hand on his bare flat thigh might easily have caused him not to choose to slam the door again. It more surely would be if he got such instant bodily pain on each of several such later instances.

Of course, young children of the same age differ widely. But, as a rule, the youngster two, three or four has not sufficient experience to profit from pain to make him do what he is told to do. Like all other living things, he tends to avoid what promises pain and is attracted to what promises pleasure.

Make painful only, therefore, the few things he must never do in your presence and pleasant the many things you want him to do. After the age of five or six he may have experience enough to profit from discomfort when he fails to do what he is told to do.

Suppose, instead of telling this tot to close the door, you had asked him to close it. In case he then decided not to close the door you probably said, "You must," and proceeded to make him close it. You also might have failed to make him really close that door.

YOU MADE a request. Then you changed the request to a command. After you often have done so he will interpret all requests as commands. Then how are you going to win his cooperation?

As I have often said in this column, when you make a request of a child, say from two to five, or at any other age, to do something, stick to the request, letting him choose whether to accede to it or not. Be ready to accept his decision.

Unless you are pretty sure he will accede don't make the request in the first place. But having made the request do all you can to persuade him to accede to it. Don't feel vexed if he doesn't. The foregoing applies to instances when you wish him to do something.

If, however, you are sure you want him to stop doing something, why risk a request? Make a command instead, for you know you can enforce it. The foregoing procedures hardly were observed when the child, written about by his mother in California, was two, three or four years old:

My child is so negative. No matter what is suggested he is against it, even the things he enjoys doing. He is now 6½. Has been in this negative attitude for as long as I can recall —at least three years."

MY REPLY in part:

Your problem is to guide this child from now on. He seems to be old enough to be commanded to do a few definite things. Center on just a few things you are sure you can enforce.

Be exacting of your son when he does in your presence what you have told him not to do. Follow each disobedience then with instant effective punishment. Allow no exceptions. But, except for routines, try to avoid commanding him to do anything.

When you make a request, honor it as such. Don't shift it to a command. Be generous with deserved praise and approval. Try to have good times with him, you and Dad.

My bulletins, "Love and Restraint," "Celebrate Your Child's Child's Successes," "How to Teach Meaning of No," and "Stubbornness: Its Prevention and Correction," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Lisbon Couple Feted On 50th Wedding Anniversary Event

Fifty relatives and other friends attended a 50th wedding anniversary fete for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hogue of Lisbon Sunday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers of Summitville.

The reception was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. David Molyneaux of Flint, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. James Smallwood of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. James Hogue of Salineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogue were married Jan. 20, 1916, at the home of her parents near Millport by the Rev. E. J. Travers of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Hogue is the former Ruth McKarns, daughter of the late John and Lydia Greer McKarns. He is the son of the late James and Elizabeth Hays Hogue.

Scouters' Winter Camp Draws 300

LISBON — Nearly 300 Boy Scouts and leaders of Northern Columbiana County participated in the weekend Shawnee District "polar bear camp" at Camp McKinley near here.

Of the 280 attending, 224 were Scouts, 36 were leaders, and 20 were staff members.

The Eagle Patrol of Troop 35 at New Waterford, sponsored by the PTO won the patrol competition. Second place was taken by Panther Patrol of Troop 6 at Salem, sponsored by St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church.

Two patrols tied for third place —Columbiana Troop 16's Alligator Patrol, sponsored by the Methodist Church, and East Palestine Troop 44's Mouse Patrol, sponsored by the Methodist Church.

Troop 44 of East Palestine took first place in the troop competition with Bill Hayes as scoutmaster. Placing second was Columbiana Troop 18, sponsored by the American Legion under Norm Spiker. The camp was held Friday night through Sunday.

The average cost of making a U.S. dollar bill, or a bill of any denomination, is less than a penny.

Ohio Youth Unit Issues Its Report

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Youth Commission today issued its second annual report since it was established in October, 1963.

The commission noted that assignment of delinquent children to its jurisdiction in the past year has been greater than ever before. As a consequence, the commission said, its program has become more diversified in the correctional service division, with greater emphasis placed on preventive programs in the various communities.

Among other accomplishments, the commission listed initiation of new accounting procedures; an active campaign for recruitment of personnel; reactivation of a public information program and major focus placed upon in-service training programs for the commission staff.

In the fiscal year ended June 30, 1965, the commission said, it expended 7.8 million from the appropriation made by the 106th General Assembly.

How Can I?

ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I make my own furniture wash at home?

A. — One very good one consists of three tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and two tablespoons of pure gum turpentine added to one quart of hot water. Mix this well and allow to cool. Then wring a soft cloth out of this mixture and clean a small area of your furniture at a time, wiping each section dry as you proceed. No rinsing is necessary. Polish the furniture after it has dried completely.

Q. — How can I remove rust stains from my kitchen sink?

A. — Pour a few drops of vinegar on the stains, leave there about 15 minutes, then scour the sink in the usual manner.

Q. — How can I fill an unsightly crack in an article of furniture?

A. Use beeswax, pressing in carefully, then stain and varnish.

Q. — How can I clean combs that are made of hard rubber or bone?

A. — Let them stand for ten minutes in a basin of warm water containing a couple of tablespoons of household ammonia. Scrub with a small brush, rinse, and dry. Alcohol solutions are also good cleaners and disinfectants for hard rubber and bone. Nylon combs can be sterilized by boiling.

Woman Seeks W. Va. State Secretary Post

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A Charleston woman has entered the race for the Democratic nomination for secretary of state.

June Estep Hammonds, 45, an accountant, is the second person to file for the Democratic nomination in the May 10 primary. The other is present Secretary of State Robert D. Bailey.

Bailey was appointed to the post after the death of Joe Burdett last year.

Mrs. Hammonds, a Morris Harvey graduate, has no previous political experience but said the Board of Public Works could stand a woman member.

Gets Windy Salute

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — After 23 years service, Lyle B. Rasey retired recently as weather forecaster in the U.S. weather bureau office here. On his last day of work, Mother Nature apparently saluted him as mountaintop winds in the area gusted up to 90 miles an hour.

Of the 280 attending, 224 were Scouts, 36 were leaders, and 20 were staff members.

The Eagle Patrol of Troop 35 at New Waterford, sponsored by the PTO won the patrol competition. Second place was taken by Panther Patrol of Troop 6 at Salem, sponsored by St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church.

Two patrols tied for third place —Columbiana Troop 16's Alligator Patrol, sponsored by the Methodist Church, and East Palestine Troop 44's Mouse Patrol, sponsored by the Methodist Church.

Troop 44 of East Palestine took first place in the troop competition with Bill Hayes as scoutmaster. Placing second was Columbiana Troop 18, sponsored by the American Legion under Norm Spiker. The camp was held Friday night through Sunday.

The average cost of making a U.S. dollar bill, or a bill of any denomination, is less than a penny.

Ohio Youth Unit Issues Its Report

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Youth Commission today issued its second annual report since it was established in October, 1963.

The commission noted that assignment of delinquent children to its jurisdiction in the past year has been greater than ever before. As a consequence, the commission said, its program has become more diversified in the correctional service division, with greater emphasis placed on preventive programs in the various communities.

Among other accomplishments, the commission listed initiation of new accounting procedures; an active campaign for recruitment of personnel; reactivation of a public information program and major focus placed upon in-service training programs for the commission staff.

In the fiscal year ended June 30, 1965, the commission said, it expended 7.8 million from the appropriation made by the 106th General Assembly.

How Can I?

ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I make my own furniture wash at home?

A. — One very good one consists of three tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and two tablespoons of pure gum turpentine added to one quart of hot water. Mix this well and allow to cool. Then wring a soft cloth out of this mixture and clean a small area of your furniture at a time, wiping each section dry as you proceed. No rinsing is necessary. Polish the furniture after it has dried completely.

Q. — How can I remove rust stains from my kitchen sink?

A. — Pour a few drops of vinegar on the stains, leave there about 15 minutes, then scour the sink in the usual manner.

Q. — How can I fill an unsightly crack in an article of furniture?

A. Use beeswax, pressing in carefully, then stain and varnish.

Q. — How can I clean combs that are made of hard rubber or bone?

A. — Let them stand for ten minutes in a basin of warm water containing a couple of tablespoons of household ammonia. Scrub with a small brush, rinse, and dry. Alcohol solutions are also good cleaners and disinfectants for hard rubber and bone. Nylon combs can be sterilized by boiling.

Shippingport Group Elects New Officers

Chosen as chaplains were Mrs. Hazel Walker and Mrs. Dorothy Hayward

Lunch was served by Mrs. Jeanette Hayward and Mrs. Irene Gardner.

Woman Seeks W. Va. State Secretary Post

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A Charleston woman has entered the race for the Democratic nomination for secretary of state.

June Estep Hammonds, 45, an accountant, is the second person to file for the Democratic nomination in the May 10 primary. The other is present Secretary of State Robert D. Bailey.

Bailey was appointed to the post after the death of Joe Burdett last year.

Mrs. Hammonds, a Morris Harvey graduate, has no previous political experience but said the Board of Public Works could stand a woman member.

Gets Windy Salute

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — After 23 years service, Lyle B. Rasey retired recently as weather forecaster in the U.S. weather bureau office here. On his last day of work, Mother Nature apparently saluted him as mountaintop winds in the area gusted up to 90 miles an hour.

When you are making a cheese sauce, you might taste it before you add salt because cheese varies in saltiness.

An ABC On 1040 And 1040A For Taxes

Not everyone can use a simple form for his income tax return. This article, the second of five, explains that point and several other procedures that must be followed.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on choosing and using the right form — 1040 or 1040A — for your 1965 income tax return. Anyone can use 1040. Not everyone can use 1040A which is a punchcard and simpler.

You can use 1040A only if your income was under $10,000 and then only if you meet these conditions:

1. Almost all your income was in wages from which tax was withheld and no more than $200 of it was in interest, dividends, or wages from which tax was not withheld.

2. You take the standard deduction allowed for personal expenses.

IF YOUR expenses were more than the standard covers, you can claim them in full but only by itemizing to prove you had them. Then you must use 1040. You have to use it if your income was $10,000 or more.

And you must use 1040 if your income was other than described above or if you claim to be head of household or a widow or widower who qualifies as surviving spouse — two categories given a special tax break — claim credit for retirement income or exclusion for sick pay, paid an estimated tax during 1965, or claim travel, transportation, moving, or other expenses.

There are two kinds of standard deductions: The 10 per cent standard and the minimum standard. The former means a 10 per cent deduction, up to a limit of $1,000 from your income before what's left is taxable.

Example: Your income was $7,000, the deduction is $700; income was $10,000, deduction $1,000; income $15,000, deduction still only $1,000.

A husband and wife using this 10 per cent standard on a joint return can, if their income justifies it, deduct up to $1,000. If they file separately, their maximum 10 per cent standard deduction is $500 each.

The minimum standard works differently. Here you deduct $300 for yourself, $100 for each dependent, and $100 for your wife if she files jointly with you or, having no income, is claimed as an exemption on your return.

Example: Say you had $7,000 income, a wife and four children. You'd get only a $700 deduction under the 10 per cent standard but $806 under the minimum standard — $300 for you and $100 for you and your wife and four children.

FOR SOME familes the 10 per cent standard gives a bigger deduction. Try it both ways if you're not sure about your case. But note this:

When a husband and wife file separate returns — using the minimum standard — each gets a deduction of only $300, plus $100 for each exemption each claims.

When couples file separate returns, if one uses the 10 per cent standard, both must; if one uses the minimum standard, both must; if one itemizes deductions, both must.

In the instruction sheet sent taxpayers by the Internal Revenue Service there are three tax tables — A, B C — and three tax-rate schedules, Nos. 1, 2, 3.

Only those with under $5,000 income can use the table to find their tax without figuring. Anyone with $5,000 or more income must figure his own tax, using one of the tax-rate schedules.

In table A for single persons and table B for married couples filing jointly there is no choice between the two standard deductions. The government has considered both and provided the lowest tax.

Note that couples using table B get a lower tax than couples filing separately with table C. It's in table C where there is a choice, for those using it, between the two standard deductions.

Those qualifying as head of household or surviving spouse — both are explained in No. 3 story in this series — get a tax break by being allowed to use low-tax table B with married couples filing jointly if their income is less than $5,000.

If you're figuring your own tax, using one of the three tax-rate schedules, you'll notice they do not parallel the three tables.

No. 1 is for single persons and married persons filing separately; No. 2 is for married couples filing jointly and for the surviving spouse; No. 3 is for the unmarried or legally separated persons who qualify as head of household.

Next: Rules for married couples.

Cars Badly Damaged In Skidding Accident

A Wellsville woman's auto was damaged extensively and there was heavy damage to a car parked along Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." Monday morning in another crash blamed on a slippery street.

The entire front end of the auto operated by Helen Virginia Rosenbaum, 36, of Pleasant Valley Rd., Wellsville, was damaged and the 8-year-old car is probably a total loss, police said.

She told officers she was headed east about 10 miles an hour when the car began swerving and she went off the road and hit the parked car of Harry Fleming Jr. of 101 Thompson Ave.

Police said there was heavy damage to the rear and left side of the Fleming auto.

Gov. Scranton Signs Bills On Civil Rights

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton has signed two bills into law strengthening Pennsylvania's civil rights statutes pertaining to discrimination in housing and employment.

Scranton placed his signature Monday on a bill empowering the Human Relations Commission to obtain a 30-day injunction against owners who try to sell or rent property involved in a discrimination claim.

Another bill approved amends the current fair employment practices act to make discrimination unlawful for employers of six or more persons, instead of the present 12.

"I hope some day we will see this law expanded to include all employers, regardless of how many people they employ," Scranton said.

The governor also signed a measure allowing tenants of substandard dwellings in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Scranton to deposit their rent in an escrow account. The rent would be withheld from the owner until authorities classify the dwellings as fit for human habitation.

Laws requiring long-range municipal planning for public sewage facilities and giving the state more power to combat air pollution also were signed.

Scranton approved legislation authorizing the Vertol division of Boeing Corp. near Philadelphia to move large helicopters over state highways. Vertol is manufacturing the helicopters for use in Viet Nam.

Other new laws:

—Appropriate $52,000 to the state Historical and Museum Commission to assist the Venango County Museum Corp. in constructing a replica of Fort Franklin.

—Require all schools to observe Memorial Day as a holiday.

Challenged To Game Of Jacks

Harvard Has Its First Woman Managing Editor

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Harvard Crimson's first woman managing editor has accepted the challenge of the managing editor of the Yale Daily News to a game of jacks.

But, she says, "Before the meet I'll cook dinner for him."

"It may be nice to spend an evening with him," said Linda C. McVeigh, 19, the first woman managing editor in the 93-year history of the Crimson, a student daily newspaper for Harvard and Radcliffe College.

John Rothchild, managing editor of the Yale student newspaper, wrote Miss McVeigh and complained that she was "a member of the female conspiracy to undermine maleness."

"I will not contest your masculinity," Rothchild wrote, "which you and other females have proven in your too often successful assaults on man's castle."

"I challenge you to the girl's game of jacks," Rothchild wrote, "regular twosies or triple bouncies."

"That's really sad," Miss McVeigh said. "Well, the Yale Daily people are very sensitive about the Harvard Crimson. They have a nice building but not much else."

She said she'd like to cook dinner for Rothchild over at the student co-op she shares with 24 other girls.

"Once every two weeks," she said, "we have to cook dinner for everybody, so I'm sort of used to the feminine duties. We get a lot of practice being girls.

"You know, he's assuming that I'm just trying for a victory for femininity," she said. "That's not true. I'm just human. He'll find out that a managing editor — even a girl managing editor — can be quite human."

About the contest, Miss McVeigh said jacks are fine.

"But I'll play some tennis with him, if he wants," she added. "Or take him on in headline writing."

McGowan To Attend Meeting At Canton

James J. McGowan of East Liverpool, faithful navigator of Cardinal Mercier general assembly, and the officers of all fourth-degree assemblies in eastern Ohio which comprise the Youngstown Diocese, have been called to a special meeting at Canton Sunday.

It will begin at 2:30 p. m. in the Knights of Columbus club rooms, 327 6th St., N.W., with Wilfred G. Herbert of Canton, master of the district, presiding.

The purpose will be to complete plans for the exemplification of the fourth degree of the Order at Canton June 11-12.

Activity reports from all 14 assemblies also will be heard.

Scranton Vetoes Nearly Million In Appropriations

He said a $750,000 appropriation for the establishment of computer centers at the universities of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh was unconstitutional.

His objection to an extra $100,000 for each of the presiding officers of the House and Senate for the use of standing committees concerned what he termed "an abdication of an important legislative function."

"It delegates to the president pro tempore of the Senate and the speaker of the House the determination as to the need and amount of funds to be allocated to the various standing committees. Such determination should remain in the bodies themselves and not be turned over to any individual, regardless of his position," Scranton said.

He struck down the $750,000 appropriations measure on the ground the constitution requires separate bills on funds for state-aided institutions.

The Senate originally had voted $500,000 to Pitt for support of two computer centers.

The House inserted another $250,000 for Penn after Scranton had cut back the school's maintenance appropriation by a similar amount.

1-20 Year Term Given For Manslaughter

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Samuel "Sleepy" Jones, 32, has been sentenced to 1-20 years in Ohio Penitentiary after pleading guilty to a first degree manslaughter charge.

He entered the plea Monday, three days after his trial on a murder charge ended in a hung jury.

Special Session Eyed To Study Pitt's Status

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Democratic lawmaker says a resolution will be introduced in the House urging Gov. Scranton to call a special session of the legislature to consider making the University of Pittsburgh state-related.

Rep. H. Beryl Klein, of Beaver County said a House subcommittee agreed on the resolution Monday night. The House is in recess until next Monday.

Millionaire Claimed

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — John Barry Ryan Jr., 65, millionaire, socialite and friend of statesmen, died Monday. The inheritor of a $29-million fortune, Ryan frequented the French Riviera and included British Prime Ministers Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden among his friends.

An ABC On 1040 And 1040A For Taxes

Not everyone can use a simple form for his income tax return. This article, the second of five, explains that point and several other procedures that must be followed.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on choosing and using the right form — 1040 or 1040A — for your 1965 income tax return. Anyone can use 1040. Not everyone can use 1040A which is a punchcard and simpler.

You can use 1040A only if your income was under $10,000 and then only if you meet these conditions:

1. Almost all your income was in wages from which tax was withheld and no more than $200 of it was in interest, dividends, or wages from which tax was not withheld.

2. You take the standard deduction allowed for personal expenses.

And you must use 1040 if your income was other than described above or if you claim to be head of household or a widow or widower who qualifies as surviving spouse — two categories given a special tax break — claim credit for retirement income or exclusion for sick pay, paid an estimated tax during 1965, or claim travel, transportation, moving, or other expenses.

There are two kinds of standard deductions: The 10 per cent standard and the minimum standard. The former means a 10 per cent deduction, up to a limit of $1,000 from your income before what's left is taxable.

Example: Your income was $7,000, the deduction is $700; income was $10,000, deduction $1,000; income $15,000, deduction still only $1,000.

A husband and wife using this 10 per cent standard on a joint return can, if their income justifies it, deduct up to $1,000. If they file separately, their maximum 10 per cent standard deduction is $500 each.

The minimum standard works differently. Here you deduct $300 for yourself, $100 for each dependent, and $100 for your wife if she files jointly with you or, having no income, is claimed as an exemption on your return.

Example: Say you had $7,000 income, a wife and four children. You'd get only a $700 deduction under the 10 per cent standard but $806 under the minimum standard — $300 for you and $100 for you and your wife and four children.

FOR SOME familes the 10 per cent standard gives a bigger deduction. Try it both ways if you're not sure about your case. But note this:

When a husband and wife file separate returns — using the minimum standard — each gets a deduction of only $300, plus $100 for each exemption each claims.

When couples file separate returns, if one uses the 10 per cent standard, both must; if one uses the minimum standard, both must; if one itemizes deductions, both must.

In the instruction sheet sent taxpayers by the Internal Revenue Service there are three tax tables — A, B, C — and three tax-rate schedules, Nos. 1, 2, 3.

Only those with under $5,000 income can use the table to find their tax without figuring. Anyone with $5,000 or more income must figure his own tax, using one of the tax-rate schedules.

In table A for single persons and table B for married couples filing jointly there is no choice between the two standard deductions. The government has considered both and provided the lowest tax.

Note that couples using table B get a lower tax than couples filing separately with table C. It's in table C where there is a choice, for those using it, between the two standard deductions.

Those qualifying as head of household or surviving spouse — both are explained in No. 3 story in this series — get a tax break by being allowed to use low-tax table B with married couples filing jointly if their income is less than $5,000.

If you're figuring your own tax, using one of the three tax-rate schedules, you'll notice they do not parallel the three tables.

No. 1 is for single persons and married persons filing separately; No. 2 is for married couples filing jointly and for the surviving spouse; No. 3 is for the unmarried or legally separated persons who qualify as head of household.

The governor also signed a measure allowing tenants of substandard dwellings in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Scranton to deposit their rent in an escrow account. The rent would be withheld from the owner until authorities classify the dwellings as fit for human habitation.

Laws requiring long-range municipal planning for public sewage facilities and giving the state more power to combat air pollution also were signed.

Scranton approved legislation authorizing the Vertol division of Boeing Corp. near Philadelphia to move large helicopters over state highways. Vertol is manufacturing the helicopters for use in Viet Nam.

Other new laws:

—Appropriate $52,000 to the state Historical and Museum Commission to assist the Venango County Museum Corp. in constructing a replica of Fort Franklin.

—Require all schools to observe Memorial Day as a holiday.

Challenged To Game Of Jacks

Harvard Has Its First Woman Managing Editor

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Harvard Crimson's first woman managing editor has accepted the challenge of the managing editor of the Yale Daily News to a game of jacks.

But, she says, "Before the meet I'll cook dinner for him."

"It may be nice to spend an evening with him," said Linda C. McVeigh, 19, the first woman managing editor in the 93-year history of the Crimson, a student daily newspaper for Harvard and Radcliffe College.

John Rothchild, managing editor of the Yale student newspaper, wrote Miss McVeigh and complained that she was "a member of the female conspiracy to undermine maleness."

"I will not contest your masculinity," Rothchild wrote, "which you and other females have proven in your too often successful assaults on man's castle."

"I challenge you to the girl's game of jacks," Rothchild wrote, "regular twosies or triple bouncies."

"That's really sad," Miss McVeigh said. "Well, the Yale Daily people are very sensitive about the Harvard Crimson. They have a nice building but not much else."

She said she'd like to cook dinner for Rothchild over at the student co-op she shares with 24 other girls.

"Once every two weeks," she said, "we have to cook dinner for everybody, so I'm sort of used to the feminine duties. We get a lot of practice being girls.

"You know, he's assuming that I'm just trying for a victory for femininity," she said. "That's not true. I'm just human. He'll find out that a managing editor — even a girl managing editor — can be quite human."

About the contest, Miss McVeigh said jacks are fine.

"But I'll play some tennis with him, if he wants," she added. "Or take him on in headline writing."

Scranton Vetoes Nearly Million In Appropriations

He said a $750,000 appropriation for the establishment of computer centers at the universities of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh was unconstitutional.

His objection to an extra $100,000 for each of the presiding officers of the House and Senate for the use of standing committees concerned what he termed "an abdication of an important legislative function."

"It delegates to the president pro tempore of the Senate and the speaker of the House the determination as to the need and amount of funds to be allocated to the various standing committees. Such determination should remain in the bodies themselves and not be turned over to any individual, regardless of his position," Scranton said.

He struck down the $750,000 appropriations measure on the ground the constitution requires separate bills on funds for state-aided institutions.

The Senate originally had voted $500,000 to Pitt for support of two computer centers.

The House inserted another $250,000 for Penn after Scranton had cut back the school's maintenance appropriation by a similar amount.

1-20 Year Term Given For Manslaughter

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Samuel "Sleepy" Jones, 32, has been sentenced to 1-20 years in Ohio Penitentiary after pleading guilty to a first degree manslaughter charge.

He entered the plea Monday, three days after his trial on a murder charge ended in a hung jury.

Special Session Eyed To Study Pitt's Status

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Democratic lawmaker says a resolution will be introduced in the House urging Gov. Scranton to call a special session of the legislature to consider making the University of Pittsburgh state-related.

Rep. H. Beryl Klein, of Beaver County said a House subcommittee agreed on the resolution Monday night. The House is in recess until next Monday.

Millionaire Claimed

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — John Barry Ryan Jr., 65, millionaire, socialite and friend of statesmen, died Monday. The inheritor of a $29-million fortune, Ryan frequented the French Riviera and included British Prime Ministers Winston Churchill and Anthony Eden among his friends.

Movie For Movie Houses

CBS announced that its first movie - made - for - TV, "The Plainsman," won't be shown on Feb. 10, as originally planned.

Instead, "at the request of" Universal Studios, which produced the two hour feature, it will be released first to movie houses.

Richard Doan

At the same time, Universal will deliver to CBS a cut-down, hour-long version of the Western to look at as the basis for a prospective weekly series.

-:-

CBS OFFICIALS insisted the circumstances surrounding the change of plans bore no resemblance to those which arose a couple of years ago in NBC's rejection of a Universal movie-for-TV called "The Killers."

NBC thought the picture, an adaptation of an Ernest Hemingway story, too violent for the home screen and authorized the studio to release it for theatrical showing.

That was the first experiment in making pictures especially for TV. Subsequently Universal made two more and NBC showed them both.

"The Plainsman," a remake of a 1936 Cecil B. De Mille movie which starred Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur, "actually turned out better than anybody expected," according to Mike Dann, CBS-TV program chief, but Lew Wasserman, boss of Universal, felt it was "very commercial" as a movie house attraction and asked CBS' permission to distribute it theatrically first.

IN RETURN he offered the network its choice of one of four other features as well as delivery of an hour pilot, Dann said. At the same time CBS will retain a financial interest in the picture.

There are indications, which Dann did not confirm, that CBS is talking with Universal as well as other Hollywood studios about making still more movies-for-TV.

One such deal unofficially has been confirmed: Warner Bros. and CBS will make a series of features costing about $1.5 million each to be shown initially in theaters, later on TV.

Asked whether "The Plainsman" would reach TV at all, Dann said, "Not for a while."

IT HAD BEEN announced originally as CBS' Thursday night movie attraction for Feb. 10 on last Nov. 30. The picture stars Don Murray as Wild Bill Hickok, Guy Stockwell as Buffalo Bill Cody and Abby Dalton as Calamity Jane.

The networks are hip deep in the televising of movies. Next fall they will be showing them five out of seven nights a week.

Dann estimated recently that the three chains will spend a record $60 million on this kind of programming next season.

Her hilarious gambol for her CBS-TV special last year was symptomatic of it. Later this month she'll tape a sequence at the Philadelphia Museum of Art for her March 30 special garbed in costumes appropriate to the locale.

She will wind up the taping of the second show in time to skip off to Paris to catch the fall fashion showings.

Last week her sponsor announced she will scout the ateliers of Dior, Chanel, St. Laurent, Givenchy-Balenciaga and others in behalf of the sponsor's apparel division.

"We believe," opined vice president Robert Smith, "that fashion news today is not a style, a color, or even a 'look.' It's an attitude.

The 23-year-old "funny girl" star made the international best dressed list last week and was named a fashion trend setter in 1964 by Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Bill Seeks To Shut Off Milk Unit Funds

HARRISBURG (AP)—House opponents of the State Milk Control Commission have come up with a new approach in their continuing battle to abolish the price fixing agency.

Reps. Max Homer, D-Allegheny, and James Smith, R-Allegheny, introduced a bill Monday that would shut off all funds to the commission, making it virtually inoperable.

The bill, given little chance of success, would abolish the $260,000 appropriation to the commission.

Efforts to abolish the commission in 1965 failed when the legislature passed a package of bills and Gov. Scranton signed them, strengthening the agency.

USW Urges U.S. Senators Insist To Vote On 14-B

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union is urging U.S. senators to "insist on their democratic right to vote" on the proposed repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act provision that allow states to ban the union shop.

In a statement sent to the White House and all senators Monday, the USW executive board said the issue at the moment is not repeal of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act, but defeat of a fillibuster like the one that prevented the issue from coming up for a vote last year.

The statement called the fillibuster a "punitive tactic alien to the democratic process."

I urged senators to "insist on the right to vote by the same legislative process in which the Taft-Hartley Act, the Landrum-Griffin Act and section 14-B itself were imposed."

Bill Seeks To Shut Off Milk Unit Funds

HARRISBURG (AP)—House opponents of the State Milk Control Commission have come up with a new approach in their continuing battle to abolish the price fixing agency.

Reps. Max Homer, D-Allegheny, and James Smith, R-Allegheny, introduced a bill Monday that would shut off all funds to the commission, making it virtually inoperable.

The bill, given little chance of success, would abolish the $260,000 appropriation to the commission.

USW Urges U.S. Senators Insist To Vote On 14-B

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union is urging U.S. senators to "insist on their democratic right to vote" on the proposed repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act provision that allow states to ban the union shop.

In a statement sent to the White House and all senators Monday, the USW executive board said the issue at the moment is not repeal of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act, but defeat of a fillibuster like the one that prevented the issue from coming up for a vote last year.

The statement called the fillibuster a "punitive tactic alien to the democratic process."

I urged senators to "insist on the right to vote by the same legislative process in which the Taft-Hartley Act, the Landrum-Griffin Act and section 14-B itself were imposed."

Review Of Book Given For Transplants Club

A book review on "It's Your Community" was given by Mrs. Doris Cameron when the Scioto Transplants Garden Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Barry in New Somerset.

The book is a guide to civic development and beautification by Henry Raymore and Stewart Ortloff. Devotions were led by Mrs. Shirley Rogers and roll call was "Something New for 1966." Mrs. Betty Twigg reported on bulbs and dish gardens planted at the Jefferson County retarded children's school in Toronto.

A white elephant sale was held. The next meeting will be Feb. 16 in the home of Mrs. Velma Milligan of Toronto.

Decorated Figure Dies

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Maj. Frank L. Anders, 90, thought to be the nation's oldest holder of the Medal of Honor, died Sunday night. He won the country's highest military decoration in 1899 for gallantry during the Philippine insurrection. Born in Fort Lincoln, N.D., he was an engineer by profession and served as Fargo's city engineer from 1909 to 1919.

Heart Attack Fatal

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan bookseller Henry C. Roberts, 76, translator of Nostradamus, a 16-century French astrologer, died Monday of a heart attack. Roberts published his translations and interpretations of Nostradamus in 1947.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My in-laws just left and I'm sick at my stomach. Yesterday their only daughter gave birth to her fourth son and they're so unhappy you would think somebody in the family had died.

My husband and I have three fine boys (6, 4 and 2) and, frankly, we are satisfied with things as they are. We wouldn't trade one of our sons for a million dollars but we wouldn't give two cents for a fourth one.

Tonight my father-in-law took me aside and said it is up to me to have a girl. He insists that the law of averages will take care of me—that out of eight grandchildren one has to be a girl. He offered to pay all medical expenses and give us $5,000 if I will have another baby.

I asked him what he would do if I had another boy. He replied, "It can't happen."

I'm so mixed up I'm half sick. Please advise me. — EDITH.

Dear Edith: It is outrageous that your in-laws regard you as a baby machine—and would stoop to bribery in an attempt to feed their sick egos. Insist that your husband silence his parents permanently.

Addled Daddy

Dear Ann: My father reads your column every day and says you are a woman with a good head on your shoulders. He's a very stubborn person and will not listen to anybody, not even my mother. You are my last hope.

I'm 17 and a high school senior. My father says I may not go with Rickey any more because he's "physically unfit." Rick was turned down by the Navy because he has a weak heart. According to my father, if I marry Rick I will have to support him for the rest of my life.

I wasn't attracted to Rick for physical reasons. He is the kindest and most considerate person I've ever known. I have no plans to get married until I'm 21, at least. And when I marry it won't be for looks, or physique or any such nonsense. Furthermore, I may not even marry Rick. I just want to go with him.

Please print my letter and your answer.—SEEN NOT HEARD.

Dear Seen: Your father's reasoning is faulty.

Many young men who are rejected by the services for physical defects will lead active lives and live to a ripe old age. By the same token, it isn't uncommon for a man who always has been in excellent health to develop a sudden disabling illness or even drop dead of a heart attack.

Please tell your dad that the woman with the good head on her shoulders hopes he will reconsider.

Flat Tire

Dear Ann: Recently my husband and I invited two couples to join us in celebrating my birthday. We decided to have dinner out and go night clubbing.

Mrs. X telephoned me and said, "Vincent had to leave town. I hope you four don't mind taking a spare woman along. I've really been looking forward to tonight."

Well, we four did mind and told her so. She has been very cool to us ever since. Were we wrong?—Q.T.X.

Dear Q.T.X.: Yes, You were wrong. The fifth wheel should have regretted both for herself and her husband and taken you off the hook. Since she did not, however, you should have put up with her and graciously.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

British Parliament Member Critically Ill

Dame Edith has been a member of the House of Commons since 1953 and was a junior minister in Conservative governments from 1955 to 1962. She became ill after returning from a lecture tour in the United States.

Ohio Serviceman Gets Medal For Heroism

Beebe manned a machine gun in the door of a helicopter hovering 50 feet over enemy ground as it evacuated wounded allied troops.

Ohio Couple Apparent Gas Explosion Victims

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP)—An Ohio couple, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Alpaugh of Fayette, checked into a motel here Sunday night and were found dead Monday—evidently victims of a gas explosion during the night.

Cleveland Man Heads Council On Fitness

Malaga is best known in the tennis world and was responsible for bringing the Davis Cup Challenge Round, the world series of tennis, to Cleveland in 1964.

Ohio Man Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Prisons has named Loy S. Hayes its deputy assistant director. Hayes formerly was associate warden at the Chillicothe, Ohio, reformatory.

I asked him what he would do if I had another boy. He replied, "It can't happen."

I'm so mixed up I'm half sick. Please advise me. — EDITH.

Dear Edith: It is outrageous that your in-laws regard you as a baby machine—and would stoop to bribery in an attempt to feed their sick egos. Insist that your husband silence his parents permanently.

Addled Daddy

Dear Ann: My father reads your column every day and says you are a woman with a good head on your shoulders. He's a very stubborn person and will not listen to anybody, not even my mother. You are my last hope.

I'm 17 and a high school senior. My father says I may not go with Rickey any more because he's "physically unfit." Rick was turned down by the Navy because he has a weak heart. According to my father, if I marry Rick I will have to support him for the rest of my life.

I wasn't attracted to Rick for physical reasons. He is the kindest and most considerate person I've ever known. I have no plans to get married until I'm 21, at least. And when I marry it won't be for looks, or physique or any such nonsense. Furthermore, I may not even marry Rick. I just want to go with him.

Please print my letter and your answer.—SEEN NOT HEARD.

Dear Seen: Your father's reasoning is faulty.

Many young men who are rejected by the services for physical defects will lead active lives and live to a ripe old age. By the same token, it isn't uncommon for a man who always has been in excellent health to develop a sudden disabling illness or even drop dead of a heart attack.

Please tell your dad that the woman with the good head on her shoulders hopes he will reconsider.

Flat Tire

Dear Ann: Recently my husband and I invited two couples to join us in celebrating my birthday. We decided to have dinner out and go night clubbing.

Mrs. X telephoned me and said, "Vincent had to leave town. I hope you four don't mind taking a spare woman along. I've really been looking forward to tonight."

Well, we four did mind and told her so. She has been very cool to us ever since. Were we wrong?—Q.T.X.

Dear Q.T.X.: Yes. You were wrong. The fifth wheel should have regretted both for herself and her husband and taken you off the hook. Since she did not, however, you should have put up with her and graciously.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

British Parliament Member Critically Ill

Dame Edith has been a member of the House of Commons since 1953 and was a junior minister in Conservative governments from 1955 to 1962. She became ill after returning from a lecture tour in the United States.

Ohio Serviceman Gets Medal For Heroism

Beebe manned a machine gun in the door of a helicopter hovering 50 feet over enemy ground as it evacuated wounded allied troops.

Ohio Couple Apparent Gas Explosion Victims

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP)— An Ohio couple, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Alpaugh of Fayette, checked into a motel here Sunday night and were found dead Monday—evidently victims of a gas explosion during the night.

Cleveland Man Heads Council On Fitness

Malaga is best known in the tennis world and was responsible for bringing the Davis Cup Challenge Round, the world series of tennis, to Cleveland in 1964.

Ohio Man Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Bureau of Prisons has named Loy S. Hayes its deputy assistant director. Hayes formerly was associate warden at the Chillicothe, Ohio, reformatory.

Otto Graham Hired By Redskins

As Coach, General Manager

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins, disappointed with nice-guy coaches and second-rate finishes, have hired Otto Graham as head coach, the Washington Post reported today.

The Post said the former Northwestern University and Cleveland Brown star also will be named general manager of the team. Official announcement of Graham's hiring may come today, the Post said.

Graham, 44, would replace Bill McPeak, a nice guy who was fired by Redskin owner Edward Bennett Williams after the 1965 football season when the Redskins again failed to match preseason expectations.

Quarterback Graham led the Browns to four straight All-America Football Conference championships and, after the team joined the National Football League, six straight Eastern Division titles and three NFL championships.

He retired from professional football in 1959 and became coach of the Coast Guard Academy teams in New London, Conn. His 1963 team went undefeated.

It was this long association with winners, the Post said, coupled with Graham's reputation as a hard-driving, tough-minded disciplinarian, that attracted the Redskin management to the outspoken college coach. Graham reportedly has turned down at least three other professional football coaching offers.

The Post said Graham was guaranteed wide authority in his new job and will sign a 10-year contract with pay unmatched by any NFL executive or coach except Vince Lombardi, coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers.

Graham has applied for separation from the Coast Guard, the Post said. He holds the rank of captain.

Kentucky Rolls To 13th Straight

Tennessee Blasts Foe By 121-42

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Either Adolph Rupp has sold his Kentucky Wildcats short or the Baron's needle has found its mark again.

The unbeaten, nationally second-ranked Wildcats rolled to their 13th victory Monday night, burying Louisiana State 111-85 under a deadly volley led by sophomore Thad Jaracz.

It was the second straight point spree in Southeastern Conference play for the Cats, who may be reacting to a well-aimed barb from their 64-year-old pilot.

"This team just does not have the killer instinct," Rupp complained two weeks ago after Kentucky squeezed past Georgia 69-65 in two overtimes after blowing a 13-point halftime lead.

The remark was enough to send the Wildcats on a second-half rampage that trampled powerful Vanderbilt 96-83 five days later. After staggering Vandy with 65 per cent shooting in the second half, they picked up the tempo in the first half of Monday's game against LSU at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky hit on 73 per cent of its field goal attempts and stormed to a 66-43 halftime margin. The Wildcats wound up with a 58.4 field goal percentage with Jaracz connecting on 11 of his 15 shots.

While Rupp nailed his 733rd career victory, Chicago Loyola — only other member of The Associated Press' Top Ten in action — extended its winning string to 11 by trouncing visiting Marshall 92-68 behind the torrid shooting of Alan Miller.

Miller, a 6-foot-2 soph, shot 12 for 20 from the field, pacing the No. 7 Ramblers to their 13th victory in 14 starts. Jim Coleman, Loyola's leading scorer, was held to three points but Corky Bell supported Miller with 17.

Tennessee, one of the clubs given a chance of overhauling Kentucky in the SEC race, exploded for a school point record in routing the touring University of Mexico team 121-42. Ron Widby dropped in 19 points and six teammates hit double figures as the Vols erased their old scoring mark of 114 points set 10 years ago against Furman.

The towering Vols outrebounded the visitors 84-29 and limited them to 14 points in the second half.

Matthew Aitch scored 23 points and Stan Washington added 21 as Michigan State whipped Purdue 92-74 at East Lansing, Mich., and moved within one-half game of Big Ten Conference leader Michigan. Dave Schellhase, the nation's scoring leader, topped the losers with 25 points.

Iowa kept its Big Ten title hopes alive by checking Ohio State 98-89 at Iowa City. George Peeples and Gary Olson scored 25 points apiece for the Hawkeyes, who overcame Ohio State's 43-41 halftime edge. Bill Hosket paced the visitors with 28.

Elsewhere, Florida outlasted Auburn 68-64; Jacksonville edged Florida State 90-86; Colorado State University blasted New Mexico State 109-70 and Tennessee Tech topped Centenary 86-74.

Duke Leads Voting With Slight Edge

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke and Kentucky, both idle last week because of mid-year examinations, continued at the head of the class in The Associated Press major-college basketball poll today. Failing grades affected the status of St. Joseph's of Pennsylvania, Kansas and Bradley.

St. Joseph's, upset by John's of New York 82-72, dropped two places to fifth. Kansas, sixth a week ago, fell to ninth after losing to Nebraska 83-75 while Bradley, seventh last week, slipped out of the rankings.

Cincinnati, which defeated the Peoria, Ill., Braves 85-69, replaced them in the Top Ten, advancing to the No. 8 position. The Bearcats were unranked a week ago.

Duke, 14-1, collected 28 first-place votes and 397 points in the latest voting by a special panel of 43 regional experts based on games through last Saturday.

Kentucky, unbeaten in 12 games, had 14 votes for the top spot and 390 points on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc. The Wildcats trailed Duke by only three points last week.

The TOP Ten, with won-lost records through games of Sat., Jan. 22, and total points:

1. Duke	14-1	397
2. Kentucky	12-0	390
3. Providence	12-1	311
4. Vanderbilt	14-2	293
5. St. Joseph's, Pa.	13-3	153
6. Texas Western	12-0	152
7. Chicago Loyola	12-1	125
8. Cincinnati	13-2	85
9. Kansas	14-3	66
10. UCLA	10-4	60

Seeking $29,000 Raise

Grant Will Ask $50,000 Talk With Griffith Nears

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jim (Mudcat) Grant, looking all "show business" in his ermine-white fur coat and down-lined snow boots, breezed into Metropolitan Stadium Monday, but steered clear of Minnesota Twins President Calvin Griffith's office.

Within the next few weeks, Griffith's office is due to be the scene of Grant's verbal battle for a $29,000 baseball salary raise. He got $21,000 in 1965 when he won 21 games.

"I haven't reached the crossroads yet," Grant said of his impending salary struggle. "I haven't talked to the man (Griffith)."

Grant says he must get a $50,000 contract to pitch for the American League champion Twins in 1966, or he'll remain in show business. He has toured this winter with his group, called "Mudcat and his Kittens," appearing at night clubs in this region and New York City, and next goes to Quebec.

"I don't have to pitch now or starve," Grant said. "If I'm not worth $50,000 now in baseball, I never will be."

A slight chink in his contract-talking armor showed through, however, when Grant admitted that there is always the possibility of compromise.

"He'll have to convince me I should compromise," Grant said of Griffith. "Right now I say I've got to have $50,000 or I won't sign.

"If he can convince me that I'm not worth $50,000, then I'll sign, but it will take some tall talking."

"I just want to say, 'Mudcat I don't believe everything I read'," Griffith said in reference to statements his pitcher has given the press.

Added Griffith:

"You know what I think he's mad about? He didn't ask for more money last year."

When Grant got his turn, he jibed, "Seems to me some other people ought to be in show business besides me."

Grant hinted that more had been made of the salary dispute than he had intended. "The sports writers have had a great time with us," Grant said.

Then to the dinner audience, Grant said, "I'm sure that I will be on the field pitching for you next year."

New Steeler Coach Asks Discipline

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers' new head coach has laid down the law — there'll be discipline on Saturday nights as well as Sunday afternoons.

"I don't believe that any player for the Pittsburgh Steelers will be loafing this year," Bill Austin told newsmen Monday at a luncheon welcoming him to the city.

"The only way to win in the National Football League is to have a disciplined football club," he added.

The 37-year-old Austin, former line coach with the Los Angeles Rams, was named Thursday to succeed Mike Nixon, fired last month after guiding the Steelers to a 2-12 record and a last place finish in the NFL Eastern Division.

Austin is an experienced assistant in both college and pro ranks and spent six years as line coach under Green Bay's Vince Lombardi.

Despite his beliefs about discipline, Austin indicated he won't copy Lombardi in that department. However, he said he intends to implement many techniques learned from the strict Packer coach.

Austin declined to commit himself about a staff, except to say he wants people who teach football "the way I believe it should be taught."

He said he plans to interview the present staff and "we'll go from there."

Carlen Adds Fourth Aide

He is a graduate of Tennessee Tech, where he was an All-Ohio Valley Conference end in 1953 and 1954.

Lima Ousts Canton As Ohio's No. 1 Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Lima Shawnee has vaulted into first place in the Associated Press high school basketball rankings, supplanting previously top-ranked Canton McKinley.

The Indians, who have ripped off 13 straight victories and 31 in a row in regular competition over two years, polled 130 points this week. Once-beaten Canton McKinley, holder of a 12-1 mark, slipped to second place seven points back of Lima.

Both teams won handily over the weekend as did most of the others in the elite circle except for Findlay and Columbus Linden McKinley.

Findlay (10-2) was victimed by Elyria, 64-61, and slipped from fifth to ninth place. Elyria, 11-1, swapped positions with Findlay.

Linden McKinley, ranked No. 8, fell to Columbus East, 60-56, and dropped out of the top ten.

Rounding out the touted teams were Dayton Chaminade in third place followed by Hamilton Taft, Elyria, Toledo Libbey, Columbus West, Warren Harding, Findlay and Cleveland John Adams, a newcomer to the group.

In Class A competition, Nelsonville holds first place again but this time by a scant one point. The Greyhounds picked up 92 points, to Springboro's 91.

Nelsonville, 10 - 1, whipped Jackson Friday 91-86 while Springboro (11-0) had its game postponed because of heavy snow.

Rossford (11-1) held third place followed by Chillicothe Flaget, Ottoville, Dixie, Zanesville Rosecrans, Anna and Rittman (tied for eighth) and Springfield Local.

Scholastic sidelights:

Cleveland John Adams (12-1) tangles with Cleveland East Tech (11-2) in a big game Wednesday and Tech, ranked 11th this week, could move into the top ten with a victory.

Alliance (9-2) has bowed only to Canton McKinley by six points and to Barberton in a double-overtime.

Centerburg's John Lambert, who suffered an arm injury and missed two games early in the season, has averaged 23 points a game since returning to the lineup.

Bob Hoyt, a 6-foot-5 Clear Fork senior, has a career average of 16 rebounds and 25 points a game.

Newport was 11-0 until an ineligible player was discovered, forcing the school to forfeit all its victories.

Kerry Miles of Celina ICHS, a Class A all-State selection last year, is hitting 26.8 points a game after 14 tilts. Elyria stopped Findlay by checking high-scoring Dave Sorenson, holding him to 13 points.

Judge Will Give Answer On Braves

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The answer to whether Wisconsin can pursue its antitrust suit against baseball and the Atlanta-bound Braves in state courts remained a closely guarded secret today.

Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller made his decision Monday, but didn't make it public. He said he would announce it later today.

Antitrust suits, representing the first major challenge in 44 years to baseball's traditional immunity from laws against monopolies, were filed last summer in both local and federal courts.

The suits, almost identical in wording, accused the National League of a conspiracy to deprive Milwaukee of baseball.

They asked that the Boston-born Braves, planning to open the 1966 season in Atlanta after a 13-year stopover here, be required to remain in Milwaukee unless the league granted the city a substitute franchise.

The federal suit was not affected by Roller's ruling.

The Braves, in asking Roller to cast the state suit out of his court, argued baseball was a national sport. They said antitrust jurisdiction belonged to Congress and the federal government, rather than any one state.

Attorneys for Wisconsin and Milwaukee County contended in reply that the Braves' departure involved a legal injury to local citizens and was subject to settlement in local courts.

At stake today was only the issue of whether Roller's court, a county circuit court set up under state laws, could hear the suit. The question of whether baseball violates antitrust laws remained to be decided.

The other suit in U.S. District Court here has been allowed to lay largely dormant while Wisconsin officials have pushed the issue in the state's courts.

The Braves lost earlier when they attempted to have the state suit heard in federal courts also. The U.S. District Court sent the suit back to Roller's court last fall and left the issue of jurisdiction up to him.

The Braves had planned to open the 1965 season in Atlanta, but were barred by a local court order that forced them to honor their contract with the county to play all home games last season in the publicly owned stadium here. The contract and the court injunction expired Dec. 31.

The Braves had cited slumping attendance in what once was the league's Cinderella city of the turnstiles in deciding to look for greener pastures.

Chamberlain 'Referees' Bout Of Official, Owner

By The Associated Press

There was a charging incident in the St. Louis-Philadelphia National Basketball Association game, but no foul was called because the man doing the charging was referee Earl Strom.

Strom charged over the officials' table and grabbed St. Louis Business Manager Irv Gack as the final buzzer sounded in the game won by Philadelphia 110-107 at Memphis, Tenn. Wilt Chamberlain quickly separated the two men and no punches were thrown.

In the only other action, Cincinnati trounced San Francisco 135-112 at Muncie, Ind. The victory moved the Royals to within eight percentage points of idle, Eastern Division-leading Boston. Philadelphia is 1½ games off the lead.

Strom became angered at something Gack said after the referee called Hawk player-coach Richie Guerin for palming the ball on a play in which Guerin stole the ball with seven seconds left and scored a lay-up which would have put St. Louis ahead 109-108.

Strom said Gack "picked up a chair and banged it on the floor and cussed like a mad man. I shouldn't have grabbed him. You get keyed up when refereeing a game."

Gack later said he told Strom as he was leaving, "You are really something."

Banks Signs $65,000 Contract With Cubs

CHICAGO (AP) — First baseman Ernie Banks has agreed to terms of a 1966 contract for his 14th season with the Chicago Cubs, it was announced today.

Banks, reportedly in the $65,000 salary bracket, hit 28 homers, 25 doubles and drove in 106 runs last season. He accepted more chances than any other first baseman in the National League, 1,790, led in put outs with 1,682 and had a .992 fielding percentage.

Otto Graham Hired By Redskins

As Coach, General Manager

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins, disappointed with nice-guy coaches and second-rate finishes, have hired Otto Graham as head coach, the Washington Post reported today.

The Post said the former Northwestern University and Cleveland Brown star also will be named general manager of the team. Official announcement of Graham's hiring may come today, the Post said.

Graham, 44, would replace Bill McPeak, a nice guy who was fired by Redskin owner Edward Bennett Williams after the 1965 football season when the Redskins again failed to match preseason expectations.

Quarterback Graham led the Browns to four straight All-America Football Conference championships and, after the team joined the National Football League, six straight Eastern Division titles and three NFL championships.

He retired from professional football in 1959 and became coach of the Coast Guard Academy teams in New London, Conn. His 1963 team went undefeated.

It was this long association with winners, the Post said, coupled with Graham's reputation as a hard-driving, tough-minded disciplinarian, that attracted the Redskin management to the outspoken college coach. Graham reportedly has turned down at least three other professional football coaching offers.

The Post said Graham was guaranteed wide authority in his new job and will sign a 10-year contract with pay unmatched by any NFL executive or coach except Vince Lombardi, coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers.

Graham has applied for separation from the Coast Guard, the Post said. He holds the rank of captain.

Holds Slim Lead

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Lima Shawnee has vaulted into first place in the Associated Press high school basketball rankings, supplanting previously top-ranked Canton McKinley.

The Indians, who have ripped off 13 straight victories and 31 in a row in regular competition over two years, polled 130 points this week. Once-beaten Canton McKinley, holder of a 12-1 mark, slipped to second place seven points back of Lima.

Both teams won handily over the weekend as did most of the others in the elite circle except for Findlay and Columbus Linden McKinley.

Findlay (10-2) was victimed by Elyria, 64-61, and slipped from fifth to ninth place. Elyria, 11-1, swapped positions with Findlay.

Linden McKinley, ranked No. 8, fell to Columbus East, 60-56, and dropped out of the top ten.

Rounding out the touted teams were Dayton Chaminade in third place followed by Hamilton Taft, Elyria, Toledo Libbey, Columbus West, Warren Harding, Findlay and Cleveland John Adams, a newcomer to the group.

In Class A competition, Nelsonville holds first place again but this time by a scant one point. The Greyhounds picked up 92 points, to Springboro's 91.

Nelsonville, 10 - 1, whipped Jackson Friday 91-86 while Springboro (11-0) had its game postponed because of heavy snow.

Rossford (11-) held third place followed by Chillicothe Flaget, Ottoville, Dixie, Zanesville Rosecrans, Anna and Rittman (tied for eighth) and Springfield Local.

Scholastic sidelights:

Cleveland John Adams (12-1) tangles with Cleveland East Tech (11-2) in a big game Wednesday and Tech, ranked 11th this week, could move into the top ten with a victory.

Alliance (9-2) has bowed only to Canton McKinley by six points and to Barberton in a double-overtime.

Centerburg's John Lambert, who suffered an arm injury and missed two games early in the season, has averaged 23 points a game since returning to the lineup.

Bob Hoyt, a 6-foot-5 Clear Fork senior, has a career average of 16 rebounds and 25 points a game.

Newport was 11-0 until an ineligible player was discovered, forcing the school to forfeit all its victories.

Kerry Miles of Celina ICHS, a Class A all-State selection last year, is hitting 26.8 points a game after 14 tilts. Elyria stopped Findlay by checking high-scoring Dave Sorenson, holding him to 13 points.

Kentucky Rolls To 13th Straight

Tennessee Blasts Foe By 121-42

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Either Adolph Rupp has sold his Kentucky Wildcats short or the Baron's needle has found its mark again.

The unbeaten, nationally second-ranked Wildcats rolled to their 13th victory Monday night, burying Louisiana State 111-85 under a deadly volley led by sophomore Thad Jaracz.

It was the second straight point spree in Southeastern Conference play for the Cats, who may be reacting to a well-aimed barb from their 64-year-old pilot.

"This team just does not have the killer instinct," Rupp complained two weeks ago after Kentucky squeezed past Georgia 69-65 in two overtimes after blowing a 13-point halftime lead.

The remark was enough to send the Wildcats on a second-half rampage that trampled powerful Vanderbilt 96-83 five days later. After staggering Vandy with 65 per cent shooting in the second half, they picked up the tempo in the first half of Monday's game against LSU at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky hit on 73 per cent of its field goal attempts and stormed to a 66-43 halftime margin. The Wildcats wound up with a 58.4 field goal percentage with Jaracz connecting on 11 of his 15 shots.

While Rupp nailed his 733rd career victory, Chicago Loyola — only other member of The Associated Press' Top Ten in action — extended its winning string to 11 by trouncing visiting Marshall 92-68 behind the torrid shooting of Alan Miller.

Miller, a 6-foot-2 soph, shot 12 for 20 from the field, pacing the No. 7 Ramblers to their 13th victory in 14 starts. Jim Coleman, Loyola's leading scorer, was held to three points but Corky Bell supported Miller with 17.

Tennessee, one of the clubs given a chance of overhauling Kentucky in the SEC race, exploded for a school point record in routing the touring University of Mexico team 121-42. Ron Widby dropped in 19 points and six teammates hit double figures as the Vols erased their old scoring mark of 114 points set 10 years ago against Furman.

The towering Vols outrebounded the visitors 84-29 and limited them to 14 points in the second half.

Matthew Aitch scored 23 points and Stan Washington added 21 as Michigan State whipped Purdue 92-74 at East Lansing, Mich., and moved within one-half game of Big Ten Conference leader Michigan. Dave Schellhase, the nation's scoring leader, topped the losers with 25 points.

Iowa kept its Big Ten title hopes alive by checking Ohio State 98-89 at Iowa City. George Peeples and Gary Olson scored 25 points apiece for the Hawkeyes, who overcame Ohio State's 43-41 halftime edge. Bill Hosket paced the visitors with 28.

Elsewhere, Florida outlasted Auburn 68-64; Jacksonville edged Florida State 90-86; Colorado State University blasted New Mexico State 109-70 and Tennessee Tech topped Centenary 86-74.

Duke Leads Voting With Slight Edge

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke and Kentucky, both idle last week because of mid-year examinations, continued at the head of the class in The Associated Press major-college basketball poll today. Failing grades affected the status of St. Joseph's of Pennsylvania, Kansas and Bradley.

St. Joseph's, upset by John's of New York 82-72, dropped two places to fifth. Kansas, sixth a week ago, fell to ninth after losing to Nebraska 83-75 while Bradley, seventh last week, slipped out of the rankings.

Cincinnati, which defeated the Peoria, Ill., Braves 85-69, replaced them in the Top Ten, advancing to the No. 8 position. The Bearcats were unranked a week ago.

Duke, 14-1, collected 28 first-place votes and 397 points in the latest voting by a special panel of 43 regional experts based on games through last Saturday.

Kentucky, unbeaten in 12 games, had 14 votes for the top spot and 390 points on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc. The Wildcats trailed Duke by only three points last week.

The TOP Ten, with won-lost records through games of Sat., Jan. 22, and total points:

1. Duke	14-1	397
2. Kentucky	12-0	390
3. Providence	12-1	311
4. Vanderbilt	14-2	293
5. St. Joseph's, Pa.	13-3	153

Judge Will Give Answer On Braves

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The answer to whether Wisconsin can pursue its antitrust suit against baseball and the Atlanta-bound Braves in state courts remained a closely guarded secret today.

Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller made his decision Monday, but didn't make it public. He said he would announce it later today.

Antitrust suits, representing the first major challenge in 44 years to baseball's traditional immunity from laws against monopolies, were filed last summer in both local and federal courts.

The suits, almost identical in wording, accused the National League of a conspiracy to deprive Milwaukee of baseball.

They asked that the Boston-born Braves, planning to open the 1966 season in Atlanta after a 13-year stopover here, be required to remain in Milwaukee unless the league granted the city a substitute franchise.

The federal suit was not affected by Roller's ruling.

The Braves, in asking Roller to cast the state suit out of his court, argued baseball was a national sport. They said antitrust jurisdiction belonged to Congress and the federal government, rather than any one state.

Attorneys for Wisconsin and Milwaukee County contended in reply that the Braves' departure involved a legal injury to local citizens and was subject to settlement in local courts.

At stake today was only the issue of whether Roller's court, a county circuit court set up under state laws, could hear the suit. The question of whether baseball violates antitrust laws remained to be decided.

The other suit in U.S. District Court here has been allowed to lay largely dormant while Wisconsin officials have pushed the issue in the state's courts.

The Braves lost earlier when they attempted to have the state suit heard in federal courts also. The U.S. District Court sent the suit back to Roller's court last fall and left the issue of jurisdiction up to him.

The Braves had planned to open the 1965 season in Atlanta, but were barred by a local court order that forced them to honor their contract with the county to play all home games last season in the publicly owned stadium here. The contract and the court injunction expired Dec. 31.

The Braves had cited slumping attendance in what once was the league's Cinderella city of the turnstiles in deciding to look for greener pastures.

Seeking $29,000 Raise

Grant Will Ask $50,000 Talk With Griffith Nears

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jim (Mudcat) Grant, looking all "show business" in his ermine-white fur coat and down-lined snow boots, breezed into Metropolitan Stadium Monday, but steered clear of Minnesota Twins President Calvin Griffith's office.

Within the next few weeks, Griffith's office is due to be the scene of Grant's verbal battle for a $29,000 baseball salary raise. He got $21,000 in 1965 when he won 21 games.

"I haven't reached the crossroads yet," Grant said of his impending salary struggle. "I haven't talked to the man (Griffith)."

Grant says he must get a $50,000 contract to pitch for the American League champion Twins in 1966, or he'll remain in show business. He has toured this winter with his group, called "Mudcat and his Kittens," appearing at night clubs in this region and New York City, and next goes to Quebec.

"I don't have to pitch now or starve," Grant said. "If I'm not worth $50,000 now in baseball, I never will be."

A slight chink in his contract-talking armor showed through, however, when Grant admitted that there is always the possibility of compromise.

"He'll have to convince me I should compromise," Grant said of Griffith. "Right now I say I've got to have $50,000 or I won't sign.

"If he can convince me that I'm not worth $50,000, then I'll sign, but it will take some tall talking."

"I just want to say, 'Mudcat I don't believe everything I read'," Griffith said in reference to statements his pitcher has given the press.

Added Griffith:

"You know what I think he's mad about? He didn't ask for more money last year."

When Grant got his turn, he jibed, "Seems to me some other people ought to be in show business besides me."

Grant hinted that more had been made of the salary dispute than he had intended. "The sports writers have had a great time with us," Grant said.

Then to the dinner audience, Grant said, "I'm sure that I will be on the field pitching for you next year."

New Steeler Coach Asks Discipline

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers' new head coach has laid down the law — there'll be discipline on Saturday nights as well as Sunday afternoons.

"I don't believe that any player for the Pittsburgh Steelers will be loafing this year," Bill Austin told newsmen Monday at a luncheon welcoming him to the city.

"The only way to win in the National Football League is to have a disciplined football club," he added.

The 37-year-old Austin, former line coach with the Los Angeles Rams, was named Thursday to succeed Mike Nixon, fired last month after guiding the Steelers to a 2-12 record and a last place finish in the NFL Eastern Division.

Austin is an experienced assistant in both college and pro ranks and spent six years as line coach under Green Bay's Vince Lombardi.

Despite his beliefs about discipline, Austin indicated he won't copy Lombardi in that department. However, he said he intends to implement many techniques learned from the strict Packer coach.

Austin declined to commit himself about a staff, except to say he wants people who teach football "the way I believe it should be taught."

He said he plans to interview the present staff and "we'll go from there."

Carlen Adds Fourth Aide

He is a graduate of Tennessee Tech, where he was an All-Ohio Valley Conference end in 1953 and 1954.

Howe Chosen To All-Stars For 16th Time

The 37-year-old right winger was named to the circuit's All-Star team for the first half of the 1965-66 season Monday along with left winger Bobby Hull, goalie Glenn Hall and defenseman Pierre Pilote of Chicago, defenseman Jacques Laperriere of Montreal and teammate Norm Ullman, a center.

Howe, in his 20th big league season, has been chosen for All-Star teams a record 16 times—eight times for the first team and eight for the second. He has a lifetime total of 614 goals.

Hull, leading the NHL with 38 goals, was the only unanimous choice in the voting by sports writers and sports casters in each of the league's six cities. He drew the maximum 90 points. Laperriere and Hall each had 84 points. Howe was next with 80 followed by Pilote with 64 and Ullman, 63.

Another poll will be taken at the end of the season and the player accumulating the most total points in both polls will be designated as the official All-Stars.

Field Is Cut To 72 In Pin Tournament

Both the men's and women's fields were cut from 216 to 72 for Tuesday's semifinals.

Strampe added a 1,061 five-game block to his already comfortable lead to post a 30-game total of 6,684.

Gary Curry, a 310-pounder from Pasco, Wash., had the biggest score of the day and jumped into second place. He put together games of 252, 194, 241, 242 and 203 for a 1,132 series and a 6,630 total.

Bill Johnson of New Orleans went into third place with 6,544.

Mrs. Rowan, of Tucson, Ariz., added a 1,017 series Monday for a 15-game total of 3,193 to lead by 109 pins over Bobbie Flum of Long Island, N.Y.

Namath Receives AFL Rookie Award

Gov. Robert McNair presented the trophy to Namath at the ninth annual Easley Football Jamboree.

"This is a wonderful award," said Namath, "but I wasn't happy with the year. My job at quarterback is to put points on the scoreboard. I didn't put enough on and we didn't win as many as we should have."

Beaver High Football Coach Resigns Post

BEAVER, Pa. (AP) — Dick Scherrbaum has announced he's resigning as Beaver High football coach to take a job in industry.

He entered coaching as an assistant at Connellsville High in 1950. In 12 years as a head coach his teams won 82 games, lost 24 and tied three.

Boyer Signs With Mets For Reported $65,000

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ken Boyer has been booted twice since last baseball season — once by the Cardinals and once by a horse.

The veteran third baseman, traded during the off-season by St. Louis, announced Monday while working out in a gym that he has signed his 1966 contract with the New York Mets, who have been kicked about quite a bit themselves.

"One of my horses kicked me some time ago. I had eight stitches, but it doesn't bother me. It won't hurt my playing."

The National League's Most Valuable Player in the Cardinals' world championship year of 1964, Boyer reportedly got in the neighborhood of $65,000, the figure he was said to have received from St. Louis.

"I was very pleased with the contract or I wouldn't have signed this soon," he said. "I'm really looking forward to the season. I'm in pretty good shape."

Boyer, 34, who had played for the Cardinals all 11 of his major league season, indicated at the time he was dealt to New York for infielder Charley Smith and pitcher Al Jackson that he was not pleased with the trade.

But Monday he said, "Now I'm really looking forward to spring training. We train in the same town as the Cardinals, St. Petersburg."

Bothered by a back injury, Boyer experienced possibly his worst season in 1965, hitting .260 with 13 home runs and 75 runs batted in.

Three other veterans, two—Bill Skowron of the Chicago White Sox and Minnesota's Camilo Pascual — who have known the thrill of World Series play, and one — Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs — who has never been on a first division team, also signed contracts Monday.

Skowron, 35, who played first base in several World Series for the New York Yankees, hit .274 with 18 homers and 78 RBI for the Sox in 1965.

The right-handed Pascual, 34, said he signed for a "slight cut," an estimated $44,000. He won nine games and lost three for the Twins last season during which he was bothered by arm trouble and underwent surgery.

Santo, 25, batted 285 with 33 homers and 101 RBI in 1965. The third baseman will be playing his sixth season for the Cubs.

Ohio Construction Boom May Face Labor Shortage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A spring boom in Ohio construction might run into a shortage of labor in some skills in some areas.

Employers faced with hiring enough skilled workmen are taking some steps to make sure they have enough labor in future years, when the problem may be even more critical.

The Ohio Homebuilders Association, which represents 4,000 contractors who build 85 to 90 per cent of Ohio's housing, has named a committee to study how to interest young men in becoming carpenters, plumbers, brick layers and the like.

The Ohio Contractors Association, representing 400 firms which build highways and water and sewage treatment facilities, has set up a joint apprenticeship program with a union to supply new operators of heavy equipment.

Any shortage might be more critical in the homebuilding industry in Northern Ohio.

Cities with large factories or similar big long-term construction projects face special problems with labor for home-building, Safreed said. He cited the Toledo area, where construction of a huge new Chrysler Corp. plant has siphoned off many skilled workmen from homebuilding.

Some craft unions are speeding up apprenticeships programs. One Toledo area carpenters organization, for instance, is training three times as many apprentices as normal.

Safreed sees training of more skilled workers, through apprenticeship programs or from vocational high schools, as a long-range answer. "This situation is going to be more critical in future years than it is at the present," he said.

The contractors, who specialize in heavy non-residential construction, have joined with the Operating Engineers union in a program to train more operators of bulldozers, cranes and other heavy equipment.

Contractors expect a rise of about 15 per cent in non-highway construction this year, mainly such projects as water purification and sewage treatment plants.

Cincinnati Presses Search For Strangler

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati police stepped up their hunt today for a strangler and attacker of women in the Walnut Hills area after a woman reported she saw a Negro man, wearing a ski mask, enter her apartment building.

She said she ran into the hallway and began hammering on the door of another apartment. She said the man, who had started up the stairway, turned and fled.

Police have been searching for a man in connection with a series of assaults and rapes in the area, including the strangulation on Dec. 2 of Mrs. B. Paul Harrington, wife of a University of Cincinnati aerospace engineer.

Man Gets 1-20 Years In Ohio Fatal Beating

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Frank D. Helton, 26, accused in the May 23, 1965 fatal beating of Lottie Ellen Lemler, 21, Lima, was sentenced Monday to a 1-20 year term in Ohio Penitentiary.

Helton was allowed to enter a plea of guilty to a manslaughter charge as he was about to go on trial for second-degree murder.

2 Killed, 1 Injured In Skidding Accident

State Trooper John Fedin said a car driven by Harry N. Lefeber, 73, of Route 1, Ronks, slid on ice and snow and was hit broadside by one driven by George A. Wilson, 56, of York.

Lefeber, a retired railroader, died in the wreckage along with Mrs. Cora Lee Kearse, 65, also of York. She was a passenger in Wilson's car. The accident occurred on U. S. 30 seven miles east of Lancaster.

Mrs. Kearse suffered a broken neck, authorities said. Wilson was reported in satisfactory condition in Lancaster General Hospital with possible chest injuries.

Millworker Killed In Pennsylvania Fire

Police said a small gas stove may have touched off the blaze; or Schwarten may have fallen asleep with a burning cigarette. The fire was confined to one room.

Mantle Set For Surgery On Shoulder

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Mickey Mantle, baseball's greatest switch-hitter, was scheduled today to undergo surgery which would probably determine where the New York Yankee star ends his playing career — in the outfield or at first base.

For 15 years Mantle has patrolled the outfield as the Bronx Bombers won 12 American League pennants. He was switched from center field to left field last season. But even with the shorter throw from left field, baserunners were taking liberties when it appeared that Mantle had trouble throwing.

Mantle, 34, checked into Mayo Clinic on Jan. 17 for a series of examinations. Today's surgery was to remove a bone chip from his right shoulder — the apparent cause of the pain which hampered his throwing.

Mantle is expected to be hospitalized 10 to 14 days. A clinic spokesman said he would have to remain in Rochester for several weeks after that for physical therapy.

Mantle says the bone chip is rubbing against a tendon. "It's just like having something sharp rubbing on a piece of string." He said it hurts when he has to lift his arm above his shoulder to put on a coat or shirt.

Yankee officials have said that Mantle might be moved to first base in 1966 to prolong his playing career. Mantle agrees that playing first base "would be easier."

The husky slugger has also had a series of painful leg injuries, which have cut down his speed.

Sled Injures City Youth, 12

A 12-year-old boy hurt sled riding was admitted Monday night to City Hospital, where four other area residents were treated after separate mishaps.

Charles Pickens, son of Mrs. Marian Pickens of 310 W. 4th St., was in "good" condition today with a deep laceration of the scalp suffered when the runner of another sled struck him.

Dale Eastwood, son of Alfred Eastwood of 601 Carolina Ave., Chester, was treated for a cut on the forehead after a fall against a coffee table at home.

3 New High Schools Slated For Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — President William H. Rea of the Pittsburgh School Board said Monday night three new high schools probably will be built in Pittsburgh in the next few years.

Rea spoke at a dinner at which he was presented the Pittsburgh Junior Chamber of Commerce Man-of-the-Year award.

He said the schools, each costing about $10 million, probably will be built in East Liberty, Oakland and the North Side.

He added that Pittsburgh needs at least six new high schools.

Man Given $75,000 For Injuries In Fall

PITTSBURGH (AP) — William D. Cox, 44-year-old river boat crewmen injured in a fall on a barge in 1964, has been awarded $75,000 in damages by a federal court jury.

The verdict was returned Monday against Dravo Corp.

Cox, of Pittsburgh, said he suffered extensive injuries when he tripped on a piece of scrap pipe June 28, 1964, while working on a barge tied up at the Emsworth Lock on the Ohio River.

Hearing Set Over Use Of Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl festival and the University of Miami have requested a public hearing on the proposed contract for use of the Orange Bowl stadium by the Miami Dolphins, the city's new American Football League team.

Miami Mayor Robert King High indicated Monday the hearing would be sometime before Feb. 2.

University President Henry King Stanford said he had been told informally that the proposed contract "accords more favorable treatment to the professional team than to the University of Miami."

Orange Bowl Committee President Robert Hector said he wanted the hearing to make certain "that our festival is not jeopardized."

City Manager Melvin Reese signed a letter of intent in the matter. It assured the AFL that the Dolphins could use the Orange Bowl with certain previous users maintaining the right to continue established events.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) — Even though she has only one leg, 13-year-old Kathy Waite hopes to win Oregon's roller-skating championship again.

Kathy won the title last year on two legs, but since then one of her legs was amputated. Three weeks after the operation, she was back on the rink, using crutches.

When a news story appeared that she would return to competitive skating, she received 300 letters.

Among them were donations totaling $558 with which she plans to buy an artificial leg.

The 56-year-old entertainer, who was admitted to the hospital Sunday, was supposed to have opened Monday night at a new theater in suburban West Covina.

The opening was postponed until Friday.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Prince Charles, 17-year-old heir to the British throne, will get something less than royal treatment when he arrives next month at the Timbertop School in the mountains 140 miles northeast of Melbourne.

"The first thing Prince Charles will learn is the art of bush fire fighting and prevention," Headmaster Thomas R. Garnett said Monday at the school.

"If there's a bush fire he will have to go out with the rest of the boys and help fight it. He will be exposed to the same disciplines as anybody else," Garnett said.

Like 135 others, the prince will wear jeans, an open shirt, sweater, sneakers, a slouch hat and boots during a 14-week term at the school.

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — Astronaut M. Scott Carpenter says surgeons probably will have to remove a callus from his left arm before he can be considered for another space flight.

One of the seven original astronauts, Carpenter broke an arm in a motorcycle accident in 1964 in Bermuda. He said the accident caused a callus to form on the bone just before the elbow.

"The doctor is not too confident it (the surgery) will work and I'm not too confident the doctor will do it," he said in an interview Monday.

Reds Sign O'Toole, Arrigo For '66 Season

The announcement by Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi mentioned no salary figures, but O'Toole is considered to have taken a cut in pay. The 28-year-old hurler had a 3-10 record in 29 games last year after compiling an 81-55 record in five previous seasons with the Reds.

Arrigo, 25, spent part of the 1965 season at San Diego, where he compiled a 4-2 record. He was 2-4 in 27 games with Cincinnati.

Jack Hawkins, British Movie Star, Has Cancer Operation

LONDON (AP) — British movie star Jack Hawkins is suffering from throat cancer, but he is reported making progress after an operation.

"His condition is satisfactory," said a spokesman at London's University Hospital, where the 55-year-old actor underwent surgery over the weekend.

Friends said Hawkins, who won international fame in "The Cruel Sea," is cheerful despite discomfort. They expressed belief the operation had been a complete success.

Hawkins' wife, Doreen, told David Lewin of the Daily Mail:

"I am assured — and I believe it — that Jack will be absolutely all right. Even now when we converse with Jack writing notes to me on bits of paper, he is making plans for the future."

Hawkins, whose square build and masculinity seem to typify the British Empire at its best, was cast for years as the epitome of the English officer.

In 1962, after eight years of continuous movie making, throat trouble forced him to abandon plans to return to the stage.

He was pronounced cured and went on to make more movies. He has just finished costarring with Sophia Loren in "Judith."

Hawkins also played television roles both in Britain and the United States. Last October he received critical acclaim in America for his role of a bitter, discouraged Englishman down on his luck in the Bob Hope theater production "Back to Back."

Bowling Green Soph Voted Player Of Week

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Walt Piatkowski's 44-point explosion against Marshall Saturday earned the husky Bowling Green player honors today as Mid-American Conference Player of the Week.

The 6-foot-8 Falcon was a unanimous choice for the accolade by the MAC selection committee.

Howe Chosen To All-Stars For 16th Time

The 37-year-old right winger was named to the circuit's All-Star team for the first half of the 1965-66 season Monday along with left winger Bobby Hull, goalie Glenn Hall and defenseman Pierre Pilote of Chicago, defenseman Jacques Laperriere of Montreal and teammate Norm Ullman, a center.

Howe, in his 20th big league season, has been chosen for All-Star teams a record 16 times—eight times for the first team and eight for the second. He has a lifetime total of 614 goals.

Hull, leading the NHL with 38 goals, was the only unanimous choice in the voting by sports writers and sports casters in each of the league's six cities. He drew the maximum 90 points. Laperriere and Hall each had 84 points. Howe was next with 80 followed by Pilote with 64 and Ullman, 63.

Another poll will be taken at the end of the season and the player accumulating the most total points in both polls will be designated as the official All-Stars.

Field Is Cut To 72 In Pin Tournament

Both the men's and women's fields were cut from 216 to 72 for Tuesday's seminfinals.

Strampe added a 1,061 five-game block to his already comfortable lead to post a 30-game total of 6,684.

Gary Curry, a 310-pounder from Pasco, Wash., had the biggest score of the day and jumped into second place. He put together games of 252, 194, 241, 242 and 203 for a 1,132 series and a 6,630 total.

Bill Johnson of New Orleans went into third place with 6,544.

Boyer Signs With Mets For Reported $65,000

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ken Boyer has been booted twice since last baseball season — once by the Cardinals and once by a horse.

The veteran third baseman, traded during the off-season by St. Louis, announced Monday while working out in a gym that he has signed his 1966 contract with the New York Mets, who have been kicked about quite a bit themselves.

"One of my horses kicked me some time ago. I had eight stitches, but it doesn't bother me. It won't hurt my playing."

The National League's Most Valuable Player in the Cardinals' world championship year of 1964, Boyer reportedly got in the neighborhood of $65,000, the figure he was said to have received from St. Louis.

"I was very pleased with the contract or I wouldn't have signed this soon," he said. "I'm really looking forward to the season. I'm in pretty good shape."

Boyer, 34, who had played for the Cardinals all 11 of his major league season, indicated at the time he was dealt to New York for infielder Charley Smith and pitcher Al Jackson that he was not pleased with the trade.

But Monday he said, "Now I'm really looking forward to spring training. We train in the same town as the Cardinals, St. Petersburg."

Bothered by a back injury, Boyer experienced possibly his worst season in 1965, hitting .260 with 13 home runs and 75 runs batted in.

Three other veterans, two—Bill Skowron of the Chicago White Sox and Minnesota's Camilo Pascual — who have known the thrill of World Series play, and one — Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs — who has never been on a first division team, also signed contracts Monday.

Skowron, 35, who played first base in several World Series for the New York Yankees, hit .274 with 18 homers and 78 RBI for the Sox in 1965.

The right-handed Pascual, 34, said he signed for a "slight cut," an estimated $44,000. He won nine games and lost three for the Twins last season during which he was bothered by arm trouble and underwent surgery.

Santo, 25, batted .285 with 33 homers and 101 RBI in 1965. The third baseman will be playing his sixth season for the Cubs.

Ohio Construction Boom May Face Labor Shortage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A spring boom in Ohio construction might run into a shortage of labor in some skills in some areas.

Employers faced with hiring enough skilled workmen are taking some steps to make sure they have enough labor in future years, when the problem may be even more critical.

The Ohio Homebuilders Association, which represents 4,000 contractors who build 85 to 90 per cent of Ohio's housing, has named a committee to study how to interest young men in becoming carpenters, plumbers, brick layers and the like.

The Ohio Contractors Association, representing 400 firms which build highways and water and sewage treatment facilities, has set up a joint apprenticeship program with a union to supply new operators of heavy equipment.

Any shortage might be more critical in the homebuilding industry in Northern Ohio.

Cities with large factories or similar big long-term construction projects face special problems with labor for home-building, Safreed said. He cited the Toledo area, where construction of a huge new Chrysler Corp. plant has siphoned off many skilled workmen from homebuilding.

Some craft unions are speeding up apprenticeships programs. One Toledo area carpenters organization, for instance, is training three times as many apprentices as normal.

Safreed sees training of more skilled workers, through apprenticeship programs or from vocational high schools, as a long-range answer. "This situation is going to be more critical in future years than it is at the present," he said.

The contractors, who specialize in heavy non-residential construction, have joined with the Operating Engineers union in a program to train more operators of bulldozers, cranes and other heavy equipment.

Contractors expect a rise of about 15 per cent in non-highway construction this year, mainly such projects as water purification and sewage treatment plants.

Mantle Set For Surgery On Shoulder

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Mickey Mantle, baseball's greatest switch-hitter, was scheduled today to undergo surgery which would probably determine where the New York Yankee star ends his playing career — in the outfield or at first base.

For 15 years Mantle has patrolled the outfield as the Bronx Bombers won 12 American League pennants. He was switched from center field to left field last season. But even with the shorter throw from left field, baserunners were taking liberties when it appeared that Mantle had trouble throwing.

Mantle, 34, checked into Mayo Clinic on Jan. 17 for a series of examinations. Today's surgery was to remove a bone chip from his right shoulder — the apparent cause of the pain which hampered his throwing.

Mantle is expected to be hospitalized 10 to 14 days. A clinic spokesman said he would have to remain in Rochester for several weeks after that for physical therapy.

Mantle says the bone chip is rubbing against a tendon. "It's just like having something sharp rubbing on a piece of string." He said it hurts when he has to lift his arm above his shoulder to put on a coat or shirt.

Yankee officials have said that Mantle might be moved to first base in 1966 to prolong his playing career. Mantle agrees that playing first base "would be easier."

The husky slugger has also had a series of painful leg injuries, which have cut down his speed.

Hearing Set Over Use Of Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl festival and the University of Miami have requested a public hearing on the proposed contract for use of the Orange Bowl stadium by the Miami Dolphins, the city's new American Football League team.

Miami Mayor Robert King High indicated Monday the hearing would be sometime before Feb. 2.

University President Henry King Stanford said he had been told informally that the proposed contract "accords more favorable treatment to the professional team than to the University of Miami."

Orange Bowl Committee President Robert Hector said he wanted the hearing to make certain "that our festival is not jeopardized."

City Manager Melvin Reese signed a letter of intent in the matter. It assured the AFL that the Dolphins could use the Orange Bowl with certain previous users maintaining the right to continue established events.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) —Even though she has only one leg, 13-year-old Kathy Waite hopes to win Oregon's roller-skating championship again.

Kathy won the title last year on two legs, but since then one of her legs was amputated. Three weeks after the operation, she was back on the rink, using crutches.

When a news story appeared that she would return to competitive skating, she received 300 letters.

Among them were donations totaling $558 with which she plans to buy an artificial leg.

The 56-year-old entertainer, who was admitted to the hospital Sunday, was supposed to have opened Monday night at a new theater in suburban West Covina.

The opening was postponed until Friday.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Prince Charles, 17-year-old heir to the British throne, will get something less than royal treatment when he arrives next month at the Timbertop School in the mountains 140 miles northeast of Melbourne.

"The first thing Prince Charles will learn is the art of bush fire fighting and prevention," Headmaster Thomas R. Garnett said Monday at the school.

"If there's a bush fire he will have to go out with the rest of the boys and help fight it. He will be exposed to the same disciplines as anybody else," Garnett said.

Like 135 others, the prince will wear jeans, an open shirt, sweater, sneakers, a slouch hat and boots during a 14-week term at the school.

One of the seven original astronauts, Carpenter broke an arm in a motorcycle accident in 1964 in Bermuda. He said the accident caused a callus to form on the bone just before the elbow.

"The doctor is not too confident it (the surgery) will work and I'm not too confident the doctor will do it," he said in an interview Monday.

Reds Sign O'Toole, Arrigo For '66 Season

The announcement by Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi mentioned no salary figures, but O'Toole is considered to have taken a cut in pay. The 28-year-old hurler had a 3-10 record in 29 games last year after compiling an 81-55 record in five previous seasons with the Reds.

Arrigo, 25, spent part of the 1965 season at San Diego, where he compiled a 4-2 record. He was 2-4 in 27 games with Cincinnati.

Jack Hawkins, British Movie Star, Has Cancer Operation

LONDON (AP) — British movie star Jack Hawkins is suffering from throat cancer, but he is reported making progress after an operation.

"His condition is satisfactory," said a spokesman at London's University Hospital, where the 55-year-old actor underwent surgery over the weekend.

Friends said Hawkins, who won international fame in "The Cruel Sea," is cheerful despite discomfort. They expressed belief the operation had been a complete success.

Hawkins' wife, Doreen, told David Lewin of the Daily Mail:

"I am assured — and I believe it — that Jack will be absolutely all right. Even now when we converse with Jack writing notes to me on bits of paper, he is making plans for the future."

Hawkins, whose square build and masculinity seem to typify the British Empire at its best, was cast for years as the epitome of the English officer.

In 1962, after eight years of continuous movie making, throat trouble forced him to abandon plans to return to the stage.

He was pronounced cured and went on to make more movies. He has just finished costarring with Sophia Loren in "Judith."

Hawkins also played television roles both in Britain and the United States. Last October he received critical acclaim in America for his role of a bitter, discouraged Englishman down on his luck in the Bob Hope theater production "Back to Back."

Bowling Green Soph Voted Player Of Week

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Walt Piatkowski's 44-point explosion against Marshall Saturday earned the husky Bowling Green player honors today as Mid-American Conference Player of the Week.

The 6-foot-8 Falcon was a unanimous choice for the accolade by the MAC selection committee.

Namath Receives AFL Rookie Award

Gov. Robert McNair presented the trophy to Namath at the ninth annual Easley Football Jamboree.

"This is a wonderful award," said Namath, "but I wasn't happy with the year. My job at quarterback is to put points on the scoreboard. I didn't put enough on and we didn't win as many as we should have."

Beaver High Football Coach Resigns Post

BEAVER, Pa. (AP) — Dick Scherrbaum has announced he's resigning as Beaver High football coach to take a job in industry.

He entered coaching as an assistant at Connellsville High in 1950. In 12 years as a head coach his teams won 82 games, lost 24 and tied three.

Cincinnati Presses Search For Strangler

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati police stepped up their hunt today for a strangler and attacker of women in the Walnut Hills area after a woman reported she saw a Negro man, wearing a ski mask, enter her apartment building.

She said she ran into the hallway and began hammering on the door of another apartment. She said the man, who had started up the stairway, turned and fled.

Police have been searching for a man in connection with a series of assaults and rapes in the area, including the strangulation on Dec. 2 of Mrs. B. Paul Harrington, wife of a University of Cincinnati aerospace engineer.

Man Gets 1-20 Years In Ohio Fatal Beating

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Frank D. Helton, 26, accused in the May 23, 1965 fatal beating of Lottie Ellen Lemler, 21, Lima, was sentenced Monday to a 1-20 year term in Ohio Penitentiary.

Helton was allowed to enter a plea of guilty to a manslaughter charge as he was about to go on trial for second-degree murder.

2 Killed, 1 Injured In Skidding Accident

State Trooper John Fedin said a car driven by Harry N. Lefeber, 73, of Route 1, Ronks, slid on ice and snow and was hit broadside by one driven by George A. Wilson, 56, of York.

Lefeber, a retired railroader, died in the wreckage along with Mrs. Cora Lee Kearse, 65, also of York. She was a passenger in Wilson's car. The accident occurred on U. S. 30 seven miles east of Lancaster.

Mrs. Kearse suffered a broken neck, authorities said. Wilson was reported in satisfactory condition in Lancaster General Hospital with possible chest injuries.

Millworker Killed In Pennsylvania Fire

Police said a small gas stove may have touched off the blaze; or Schwarten may have fallen asleep with a burning cigarette. The fire was confined to one room.

Sled Injures City Youth, 12

A 12-year-old boy hurt sled riding was admitted Monday night to City Hospital, where four other area residents were treated after separate mishaps.

Charles Pickens, son of Mrs. Marian Pickens of 310 W. 4th St., was in "good" condition today with a deep laceration of the scalp suffered when the runner of another sled struck him.

Dale Eastwood, son of Alfred Eastwood of 601 Carolina Ave., Chester, was treated for a cut on the forehead after a fall against a coffee table at home.

3 New High Schools Slated For Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — President William H. Rea of the Pittsburgh School Board said Monday night three new high schools probably will be built in Pittsburgh in the next few years.

Rea spoke at a dinner at which he was presented the Pittsburgh Junior Chamber of Commerce Man-of-the-Year award.

He said the schools, each costing about $10 million, probably will be built in East Liberty, Oakland and the North Side.

He added that Pittsburgh needs at least six new high schools.

Man Given $75,000 For Injuries In Fall

PITTSBURGH (AP) — William D. Cox, 44-year-old river boat crewmen injured in a fall on a barge in 1964, has been awarded $75,000 in damages by a federal court jury.

The verdict was returned Monday against Dravo Corp.

Cox, of Pittsburgh, said he suffered extensive injuries when he tripped on a piece of scrap pipe June 28, 1964, while working on a barge tied up at the Emsworth Lock on the Ohio River.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I'm a small-town doctor, and have set three broken limbs this week — all caused from slipping on throw rugs.

All such rugs should be treated to prevent such skidding.

Please caution your readers concerning this hazard.

W. H. DAVIS, MD

I certainly agree with you, Doctor.

Rubber-based paint is also wonderful for this purpose (many homeowners have some left over from painting walls, etc.) This paint must also be allowed to dry thoroughly before the rugs are put into use.

Also, thin pliofilm bags (from the dry cleaner) may be slightly crumpled and placed under throw rugs to keep them from slipping. They are free, too! (Remember the cautions on pliofilm bags, folks).

Thanks, Doctor, for bringing this to our attention.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: My children love to have something to play with while taking their baths.

PAT CROFOOT.

DEAR HELOISE: How's this for cooling cake layers?

After many years and many cakes, I found I could remove my second oven rack before heating my oven and I could use it for cooling cake layers.

MRS. JACK GRIBBLE

DEAR GALS: Whether you know it or not, expensive plastic playing cards should never be used on a card table unless it's covered. It ruins the cards — so say the manufacturers.

I made the cutest card table cover with a little more than a yard remnant of black velveteen (my furniture is ebony), and put a four-inch square of waterproof material on the top of each corner for coffee cups, etc.

The cards scoot across the lovely velveteen which looks so expensive — but wasn't. I've had so many compliments on my cover, just thought I should pass the hint along.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you're like me, you have to guard bath towels from the men in the family — they like to snitch them to clean the car.

So . . . go through your supply of towels, and discard any which are worn, torn or tired looking.

They will have car rags and you will have an excuse (and room) to buy beautiful new towels!

MRS. ANN SMITH

DEAR HELOISE: One day when I was cutting out some pretty pictures from magazines I was wondering how to preserve them.

So, I put my pictures between two sheets of wax paper, ironed them, and it worked lovely.

Young Driver Fined $10 On 'Chain' Crash

One of four drivers cited by the State Highway Patrol after an involved "chain reaction" crash Monday morning on the snow-covered Freeway, a 19-year-old motorist was fined $10 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Raymond A. Holt of the Bell School Rd. pleaded "no contest" on the charge. The patrol said the pileup involved five cars on the four-lane road about four-tenths of a mile north of the city limits.

"I have been lenient with you because I know what the weather was like yesterday," the judge told Holt. "But you did not have your car under proper control."

Three others cited on the same charge are due to appear in court Wednesday. They are Hazel Melissa Torrence of Carroll Rd., Kenneth Lionel Myers of R. D. 2 and Gerald Dean Felton of Lisbon R. D. 1.

A charge of driving while intoxicated against an East Liverpool man was dismissed today and he was fined $10 and costs on a simple intoxication charge which was substituted.

Police alleged that a car driven by Norman McCoy, 46, of 132 W. 4th St. collided with two parked cars on Dresden Ave. Saturday night at 8:51 during the height of a snow storm. McCoy originally was in court Monday, but his case was continued until today. He was represented by W. S. Foulks.

Lorain School Head's Contract Not Renewed

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — The City Board of Education voted 4-1 Monday night not to renew the contract of school Supt. John W. Evans, which expires July 31.

Dr. Evans has been head of the Lorain school system since August, 1951. His current three-year contract calls for an annual salary of $20,000.

He said the board offered him "no opportunity to discuss an evaluation of the situation prior to taking the . . . action." He said he knew of no major criticism of him or his policies.

Dixie Radcliff Faces Sentence Feb. 7 In Murder

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Dixie Lee Radcliff will appear in court here Feb. 7 to be sentenced for her part in the slaying of two men near Ash Fork, Ariz., last Labor Day weekend.

She had been charged with two counts of first-degree murder, but Juvenile Court Judge Jack D. H. Hays granted a motion Monday that they be reduced. Miss Radcliff then pleaded guilty to both.

She was charged, along with Donald Boggs, 23-year-old ex-convict from Londonderry, Ohio, in the slayings of Robert Willis, 23, and Halvor Johnson, 28.

Boggs pleaded guilty to murder charges and has been sentenced to death.

Ex-Ohioan Indicted On False Statements

CLEVELAND (AP)—A U. S. District Court jury has convicted a fromer Akron area businessman of making false statements to obtain Federal Housing Administration loans for clients.

Gayle Randal Farrington, 44, of Orlando, Fla., was found guilty Monday of five counts of a six-count indictment returned Feb. 2, 1963. He remained free under $10,000 bond pending a probation report.

Farrington was charged with obtaining loans through false statements for aluminum siding, alumium awnings and other home improvements and repairs.

Weirton Steel To Construct Dispensary

WEIRTON — Plans for the construction of an in-plant medical dispensary to serve employees of the Weirton Steel Division of the National Steel Corp. were announced today by C. G. Tournay, president.

The new dispensary facility will be for the treatment of Weirton Steel emergency cases, out-patient care and normal and routine examinations in connection with the company's health services.

Upon completion of the structure, Weirton Steel will release to Weirton General Hospital one wing of the hospital now occupied by the company's Medical Department and a portion of the wing that originally was designed as an out - patient department. It has been pointed out by hospital authorities that Weirton General Hospital is in urgent need of extra space to relieve overcrowding and for general hospital purposes.

The new structure will be a one - story Stran - Steel building combining the most advanced developments in medical dispensary design and equipment including X-ray and laboratory facilities, Tournay said. Steel for the building will be produced in Weirton and fabricated by the Stran - Steel Division of National Steel.

In addition to the model dispensary facilitities, the new building will include offices for the medical staff and clerical personnel of the Weirton Steel Co. as well as a lobby and reception area.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I'm a small-town doctor, and have set three broken limbs this week — all caused from slipping on throw rugs.

All such rugs should be treated to prevent such skidding.

W. H. DAVIS, MD

Most supermarkets sell non-skid sprays to apply to the backs of throw rugs.

Rubber-based paint is also wonderful for this purpose (many homeowners have some left over from painting walls, etc.) This paint must also be allowed to dry thoroughly before the rugs are put into use.

Also, thin pliofilm bags (from the dry cleaner) may be slightly crumpled and placed under throw rugs to keep them from slipping. They are free, too! (Remember the cautions on pliofilm bags, folks).

Thanks, Doctor, for bringing this to our attention.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: My children love to have something to play with while taking their baths.

So I give them some of those empty plastic liquid soap bottles in place of bath toys. Not only do the kids find them intriguing, but they're free, too!

PAT CROFOOT

DEAR HELOISE: How's this for cooling cake layers?

After many years and many cakes, I found I could remove my second oven rack before heating my oven and I could use it for cooling cake layers.

I place a cloth over the rack and turn the layers of cake on this.

DEAR GALS: Whether you know it or not, expensive plastic playing cards should never be used on a card table unless it's covered. It ruins the cards — so say the manufacturers.

I made the cutest card table cover with a little more than a yard remnant of black velveteen (my furniture is ebony), and put a four-inch square of waterproof material on the top of each corner for coffee cups, etc.

The cards scoot across the lovely velveteen which looks so expensive — but wasn't. I've had so many compliments on my cover, just thought I should pass the hint along.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: If you're like me, you have to guard bath towels from the men in the family — they like to snitch them to clean the car.

So . . . go through your supply of towels, and discard any which are worn, torn or tired looking.

Give these to the men.

They will have car rags and you will have an excuse (and room) to buy beautiful new towels!

MRS. ANN SMITH

DEAR HELOISE: One day when I was cutting out some pretty pictures from magazines I was wondering how to preserve them.

So, I put my pictures between two sheets of wax paper, ironed them, and it worked lovely.

Young Driver Fined $10 On 'Chain' Crash

One of four drivers cited by the State Highway Patrol after an involved "chain reaction" crash Monday morning on the snow-covered Freeway, a 19-year-old motorist was fined $10 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Raymond A. Holt of the Bell School Rd. pleaded "no contest" on the charge. The patrol said the pileup involved five cars on the four-lane road about four-tenths of a mile north of the city limits.

"I have been lenient with you because I know what the weather was like yesterday," the judge told Holt. "But you did not have your car under proper control."

Three others cited on the same charge are due to appear in court Wednesday. They are Hazel Melissa Torrence of Carroll Rd., Kenneth Lionel Myers of R. D. 2 and Gerald Dean Felton of Lisbon R. D. 1.

A charge of driving while intoxicated against an East Liverpool man was dismissed today and he was fined $10 and costs on a simple intoxication charge which was substituted.

Police alleged that a car driven by Norman McCoy, 46, of 132 W. 4th St. collided with two parked cars on Dresden Ave. Saturday night at 8:51 during the height of a snow storm. McCoy originally was in court Monday, but his case was continued until today. He was represented by W. S. Foulks.

Lorain School Head's Contract Not Renewed

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — The City Board of Education voted 4-1 Monday night not to renew the contract of school Supt. John W. Evans, which expires July 31.

Dr. Evans has been head of the Lorain school system since August, 1951. His current three-year contract calls for an annual salary of $20,000.

He said the board offered him "no opportunity to discuss an evaluation of the situation prior to taking the . . . action." He said he knew of no major criticism of him or his policies.

Dixie Radcliff Faces Sentence Feb. 7 In Murder

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Dixie Lee Radcliff will appear in court here Feb. 7 to be sentenced for her part in the slaying of two men near Ash Fork, Ariz., last Labor Day weekend.

The 16 - year-old Amesville, Ohio, girl could receive five years each on separate charges of being an accessory and compounding a crime.

She had been charged with two counts of first-degree murder, but Juvenile Court Judge Jack D. H. Hays granted a motion Monday that they be reduced. Miss Radcliff then pleaded guilty to both.

She was charged, along with Donald Boggs, 22-year-old ex-convict from Londonderry, Ohio, in the slayings of Robert Willis, 23, and Halvor Johnson, 28.

Boggs pleaded guilty to murder charges and has been sentenced to death.

Ex-Ohioan Indicted On False Statements

CLEVELAND (AP)—A U. S. District Court jury has convicted a fromer Akron area businessman of making false statements to obtain Federal Housing Administration loans for clients.

Gayle Randal Farrington, 44, of Orlando, Fla., was found guilty Monday of five counts of a six-count indictment returned Feb. 2, 1963. He remained free under $10,000 bond pending a probation report.

Farrington was charged with obtaining loans through false statements for aluminum siding, alumium awnings and other home improvements and repairs.

Weirton Steel To Construct Dispensary

WEIRTON — Plans for the construction of an in-plant medical dispensary to serve employees of the Weirton Steel Division of the National Steel Corp. were announced today by C. G. Tournay, president.

The new dispensary facility will be for the treatment of Weirton Steel emergency cases, out-patient care and normal and routine examinations in connection with the company's health services.

Upon completion of the structure, Weirton Steel will release to Weirton General Hospital one wing of the hospital now occupied by the company's Medical Department and a portion of the wing that originally was designed as an out - patient department. It has been pointed out by hospital authorities that Weirton General Hospital is in urgent need of extra space to relieve overcrowding and for general hospital purposes.

The new structure will be a one - story Stran - Steel building combining the most advanced developments in medical dispensary design and equipment including X-ray and laboratory facilities, Tournay said. Steel for the building will be produced in Weirton and fabricated by the Stran - Steel Division of National Steel.

In addition to the model dispensary facilitities, the new building will include offices for the medical staff and clerical personnel of the Weirton Steel Co. as well as a lobby and reception area.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 2, 1965. AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTIONS 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 AND 16D OF ORDINANCE NUMBER 30, 1964, WHICH LEVIED A CITY INCOME TAX AND ESTABLISHING NEW SECTIONS FOR THE ABOVE SECTIONS.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Number 30, 1964, did contain the following sections which are herein expressly set forth, towit:

SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall, on or before April 15, 1966, and on April 15th of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Auditor, on a form obtainable from the City Auditor, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Auditor may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Auditor the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and or Section 6 of this Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Auditor, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of eight tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Auditor may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool, who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of eight - tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Auditor, the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th; for the three months ending June 30th, on or before July 31st; for the three months ending September 30th, on or before October 31st; for the three months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed and furnished by the City Auditor. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for each calendar year on or before April 15th of each year.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed and furnished by the City Auditor and which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance. Said estimated tax declaration must be in the amount of at least seventy per cent (70%) of the amount of tax computed on the previous year's income subject to city income tax unless taxpayer produces satisfactory evidence that the tax for the current year will be less.

The declaration to be filed on the dates set forth above shall be accompanied by payment of at least one - fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th and December 31 of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year, provided that if the total refund claimed for a tax year is less than one dollar ($1.00), said refund will be applied on the next years estimate of tax, unless the person entitled to the refund ceases to be a taxpayer and refund is requested.

SECTION 6-A. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES, STATE, TOWNSHIP OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.

1. When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to an income tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision on the same income taxable under this Ordinance or is subject to an occupational tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision which occupation is the source of the income taxable under this ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of 50% of the amount of tax for which he is liable under the tax of such other subdivision or state or 50 per cent of the tax due under this Ordinance, whichever is the lesser amount.

In the event such East Liverpool Resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Auditor, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

2. Any claim for credit for income taxes or occupation tax paid another subdivision or State on the same income taxable hereunder, must be filed with the City Auditor of the City of East Liverpool, on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, failure to file such claim for credit or refund within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit or claim for refund null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION, DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Auditor's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the internal audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

He shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance, shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt, and shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The City Auditor, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Auditor, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Auditor, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not much than six (6) months in the city jail, or both such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosures of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or Five Dollars (5.00), whichever is the greater. The City Auditor may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deem proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts of like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Auditor on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Auditor, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall, knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form, shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire, or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 16. BOARD OF REVIEW.

D. Any person dissatisfied with any ruling or decision of the City Auditor, which is made under the authority conferred by this Ordinance may appeal therefrom to the Board of Review within thirty (30) days from the announcement of such ruling or decision by the City Auditor, and the Board of Review shall, on hearing, having jurisdiction to affirm, reverse or modify any such ruling or decision, or any part thereof.

AND WHEREAS, it is necessary, in order to comply with the Ohio law or interpretations thereof, to change the administration of said tax from the City Auditor to the City Treasurer by amending the above sections.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO.

SECTION 1. That Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 16 D of Ordinance Number 30, 1964, be and the same are hereby amended, which amended sections are hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall, on or before April 15, 1966, and on April 15th of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Treasurer on a form obtainable from the City Treasurer, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Treasurer may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and or Section 6 of the Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Treasurer, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of eight tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Treasurer may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of eight - tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th; for the three months ending June 30th; on or before July 31st; for the three months ending September 30th, on or before October 31st; for the three months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool, and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for each calendar year on or before April 15th of each year.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer and which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance. Said estimated tax declaration must be in the amount of at least seventy per cent (70%) of the amount of tax computed on the previous year's income subject to city income tax unless taxpayer produces satisfactory evidence that the tax for the current year will be less.

The declaration to be filed on the dates set forth above shall be accompanied by payment of at least one-fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th, and December 31 of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year, provided that if the total refund claimed for a tax year is less than one dollar ($1.00), said refund will be applied on the next year's estimate of tax, unless the person entitled to the refund ceases to be a taxpayer and refund is requested.

SECTION 6-A. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES, STATE, TOWNSHIP OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.

1. When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to an income tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision on the same income taxable under this Ordinance or is subject to an occupational tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision which occupation is the source of the income taxable under this ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of 50% of the amount of tax for which he is liable under the tax of such other subdivision or state or 50% of the tax due under the Ordinance, whichever is the lesser amount.

In the event such East Liverpool Resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Treasurer, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

2. Any claim for credit for income taxes or occupation tax paid another subdivision or State on the same income taxable hereunder, must be filed with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, failure to file such claim for credit or refund within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit or claim for refund null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION, DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR AND CITY TREASURER.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Treasurer's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the internal audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

The City Treasurer shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance, shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt, and shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The Treasurer, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, paper and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months in the city jail, or both, such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosure of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or fifty cents for each month or fraction thereof for the first six months of non - payment, whichever is the greater. The City Treasurer may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deem proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts or like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Treasurer on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Treasurer, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall, knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty (60) days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form, shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 16. BOARD OF REVIEW.

D. Any person dissatisfied with any ruling or decision of the City Treasurer, which is made under the authority conferred by this Ordinance may appeal therefrom to the Board of Review within thirty (30) days from the announcement of such ruling or decision by the City Treasurer, and the Board of Review shall, on hearing, have jurisdiction to affirm, reverse or modify any such ruling or decision, or any part thereof.

SECTION 2. That Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 16D of Ordinance Number 30, 1964, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the immediate relocation of the duties of the collection of income tax under Ordinance Number 30, 1964, in order that there will be no break-down of collection procedure in said taxes in order that the funds collected thereby will continue to be duly received to continue the operation of governmental functions supported thereby. This Ordinance shall thereby take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

Passed this 14th day of January, 1966.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 2, 1965. AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTIONS 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 AND 16D OF ORDINANCE NUMBER 30, 1964, WHICH LEVIED A CITY INCOME TAX AND ESTABLISHING NEW SECTIONS FOR THE ABOVE SECTIONS.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Number 30, 1964, did contain the following sections which are herein expressly set forth, to-wit:

SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall, on or before April 15, 1966, and on April 15th of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Auditor, on a form obtainable from the City Auditor, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Auditor may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Auditor the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and/or Section 6 of this Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers, showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Auditor, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of eight tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Auditor may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days, beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool, who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of eight - tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Auditor the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th; for the three months ending June 30th, on or before July 31st; for the three months ending September 30th, on or before October 31st; for the three months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed and furnished by the City Auditor. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool, and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for each calendar year on or before April 15th of each year.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed and furnished by the City Auditor and which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance. Said estimated tax declaration must be in the amount of at least seventy per cent (70 -) of the amount of tax computed on the previous year's income subject to city income tax unless taxpayer produces satisfactory evidence that the tax for the current year will be less.

The declaration to be filed on the dates set forth above shall be accompanied by payment of at least one - fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th and December 31 of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed, and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year, provided that if the total refund claimed for a tax year is less than one dollar ($1.00) said refund will be applied on the next years estimate of tax, unless the person entitled to the refund ceases to be a taxpayer and refund is requested.

SECTION 6-A. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES, STATE, TOWNSHIP OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.

1. When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to an income tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision on the same income taxable under this Ordinance or is subject to an occupational tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision which occupation is the source of the income taxable under this ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of 50 - of the amount of tax for which he is liable under the tax of such other subdivision or state or 50 per cent of the tax due under this Ordinance, whichever is the lesser amount.

In the event such East Liverpool Resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Auditor, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

2. Any claim for credit for income taxes or occupation tax paid another sub-division or State on the same income taxable hereunder, must be filed with the City Auditor of the City of East Liverpool, on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, failure to file such claim for credit or refund, within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit or claim for refund null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Auditor's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the internal audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

He shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance, shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt, and shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The City Auditor, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Auditor, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Auditor, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not much than six (6) months in the city jail, or both such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosures of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6 -) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or Five Dollars ($5.00), whichever is the greater. The City Auditor may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deems proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts of like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Auditor on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Auditor, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 16. BOARD OF REVIEW.

D. Any person dissatisfied with any ruling or decision of the City Auditor, which is made under the authority conferred by this Ordinance may appeal therefrom to the Board of Review within thirty (30) days from the announcement of such ruling or decision by the City Auditor, and the Board of Review shall, on hearing, having jurisdiction to affirm, reverse or modify any such ruling or decision or any part thereof.

AND WHEREAS, it is necessary in order to comply with the Ohio law or interpretations thereof, to change the administration of said tax from the City Auditor to the City Treasurer by amending the above sections.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO.

SECTION 1. That Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 16 D of Ordinance Number 30, 1964, be and the same are hereby amended, which amended sections are hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall on or before April 15, 1966, and on April 15th of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Treasurer on a form obtainable from the City Treasurer, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Treasurer may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and/or Section 6 of the Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Treasurer, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of eight tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Treasurer may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of eight - tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th; for the three months ending June 30th; on or before July 31st; for the three months ending September 30th, on or before October 31st; for the three months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool, and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for each calendar year on or before April 15th of each year.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer and which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance. Said estimated tax declaration must be in the amount of at least seventy per cent (70 -) of the amount of tax computed on the previous year's income subject to city income tax unless taxpayer produces satisfactory evidence that the tax for the current year will be less.

The declaration to be filed on the dates set forth above shall be accompanied by payment of at least one-fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th, and December 31 of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year, provided that if the total refund claimed for a tax year is less than one dollar ($1.00) said refund will be applied on the next year's estimate of tax, unless the person entitled to the refund ceases to be a taxpayer and refund is requested.

SECTION 6-A. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES, STATE, TOWNSHIP OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.

1. When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to an income tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision on the same income taxable under this Ordinance or is subject to an occupational tax in another municipality, state, township or other political subdivision which occupation is the source of the income taxable under this ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of 50 - of the amount of tax for which he is liable under the tax of such other subdivision or state or 50 - of the tax due under the Ordinance, whichever is the lesser amount.

In the event such East Liverpool Resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Treasurer, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

2. Any claim for credit for income taxes or occupation tax paid another subdivision or State on the same income taxable hereunder, must be filed with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, failure to file such claim for credit or refund, within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit or claim for refund null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR AND CITY TREASURER.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Treasurer's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the internal audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

The City Treasurer shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance, shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt, and shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The Treasurer, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, paper and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months in the city jail, or both, such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosure of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6 -) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or fifty cents for each month or fraction thereof for the first six months of non - payment, whichever is the greater. The City Treasurer may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deem proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts or like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Treasurer on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Treasurer, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 16. BOARD OF REVIEW.

D. Any person dissatisfied with any ruling or decision of the City Treasurer, which is made under the authority conferred by this Ordinance may appeal therefrom to the Board of Review within thirty (30) days from the announcement of such ruling or decision by the City Treasurer, and the Board of Review shall, on hearing, have jurisdiction to affirm, reverse or modify any such ruling or decision, or any part thereof.

SECTION 2. That Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 16D of Ordinance Number 30, 1964, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the immediate relocation of the duties of the collection of income tax under Ordinance Number 30, 1964, in order that there will be no break-down of collection procedure in said taxes in order that the funds collected thereby will continue to be duly received to continue the operation of governmental functions supported thereby. This Ordinance shall thereby take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 4, 1966. AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH THE WAGES AND SALARIES OF CERTAIN EMPLOYEES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, ON AND AFTER FEBRUARY 1, 1966, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO.

SECTION 1. That on and after February 1, 1966, the compensation (payable semi-monthly) of the following employees of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be as follows:

WATER DEPARTMENT
Chief Clerk $405.00 per month
Clerk Stenographer 359.00 per month

SEWERAGE DEPARTMENT
Asst. Clerk Stenographer $292.00 per month

OFFICIALS EMPLOYEES
Mayor's Administrative Clerk $336.00 per month
Auditor's Assistant Clerk 336.00 per month
Auditor's Clerk 368.00 per month
Director's Stenographer 336.00 per month
Solicitor's Stenographer 256.00 per month

INCOME TAX DEPARTMENT
Supervisor $490.00 per month
Clerk 336.00 per month

CIVIL DEFENSE
Civil Defense Clerk $360.00 per month

SECTION 2. That on and after February 1, 1966, the salary of the Dog Warden shall be $160.00 per month, payable semi-monthly.

SECTION 3. That any Ordinance in conflict with or inconsistent with this ordinance is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. That this Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall go into immediate effect upon its passage by the Council and approval by the Mayor. Said emergency lies in the fact that it is necessary to provide an increase in salaries immediately to retain as employees those who are experienced in their positions and ensure the daily operation of the various departments in the most efficient manner, and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, property, health and safety of the citizens of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NUMBER 3, 1966

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING ADDITIONAL PAY TO EMPLOYEES OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS TO COMPENSATE FOR YEARS OF SERVICE OF EACH MEMBER AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, certain members of the various departments other than police and fire of the City of East Liverpool have been members of the said departments for many years and have acquired experience over and above other members who have recently joined said departments and said experienced members have the responsibility of training new members of the departments, and

WHEREAS, this Council is of the opinion that said members should receive additional compensation for said experience and responsibility, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. In addition to the compensation provided from time to time by ordinances of Council for employees of the various departments of the City who are paid an hourly rate, the said employees shall receive as wages such sums of money as are arrived at by the application of the following percentages of each regular semi-monthly pay:

(a) To each employee who has completed 25 continuous years of service five (5) per cent, but not more than $12.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(b) To each employee who has completed 20 continous years of service four and one-half (4½) per cent, but not more than $12.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(c) To each employee who has completed 15 continuous years of service four (4) per cent, but not more than $10.00 per semi-monthly payroll;

(d) To each employee who has completed 10 continuous years of service three and one-half (3½) per cent, but nore more than $7.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(e) To each employee who has completed 5 continuous years of service three (3) per cent, but not more than $5.00 per semi-monthly payroll.

SECTION 2. The term of "continuous years of service" shall be defined as employment in the City's service without break or interruption. Leaves of absence with or without pay of not to exceed thirty-one (31) consecutive days shall not interrupt continuous service nor be deducted therefrom. Absence on leave without pay in excess of thirty-one (31) days, except for extended service with the Armed Forces of the United States, shall be deducted in computing total service, but shall not serve to interrupt continuous service. All absences without leave in excess of one (1) day shall be deducted from, and all absences without leave in excess of three (3) days shall interrupt continuity of service. Provided that leaves of absence with or without pay taken prior to the effective date of this ordinance shall not be taken into consideration in determining "years of continuous service."

SECTION 3. The additional amounts set forth in Section 1, shall be paid in semi-monthly installments together with the payment of the wages of each employee. Any adjustment in the rate of compensation of said employee under the provisions of this ordinance shall become effective on the first day of the month during which the anniversary of the employment or appointment to position occurs.

SECTION 4. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect and be in force on and after March 1, 1966. Said emergency lies in the fact that the members of said departments who have the training and experience for said positions which results from years of service must be compensated for this experience or the City may lose the same resulting in inefficiency and inexperience in said departments and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, health and safety of the citizens of East Liverpool, Ohio.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NUMBER 3, 1966
AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING ADDITIONAL PAY TO EMPLOYEES OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS TO COMPENSATE FOR YEARS OF SERVICE OF EACH MEMBER AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, certain members of the various departments other than police and fire of the City of East Liverpool have been members of the said departments for many years and have acquired experience over and above other members who have recently joined said departments and said experienced members have the responsibility of training new members of the departments, and

WHEREAS, this Council is of the opinion that said members should receive additional compensation for said experience and responsibility, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. In addition to the compensation provided from time to time by ordinances of Council for employees of the various departments of the City who are paid an hourly rate, the said employees shall receive as wages such sums of money as are arrived at by the application of the following percentages of each regular semi-monthly pay:

(a) To each employee who has completed 25 continuous years of service five (5) per cent, but not more than $12.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(b) To each employee who has completed 20 continous years of service four and one-half (4½) per cent, but not more than $12.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(c) To each employee who has completed 15 continuous years of service four (4) per cent, but not more than $10.00 per semi-monthly payroll;

(d) To each employee who has completed 10 continuous years of service three and one-half (3½) per cent, but nore more than $7.50 per semi-monthly payroll;

(e) To each employee who has completed 5 continuous years of service three (3) per cent, but not more than $5.00 per semi-monthly payroll.

SECTION 2. The term of "continuous years of service" shall be defined as employment in the City's service without break or interruption. Leaves of absence with or without pay of not to exceed thirty-one (31) consecutive days shall not interrupt continuous service nor be deducted therefrom. Absence on leave without pay in excess of thirty-one (31) days, except for extended service with the Armed Forces of the United States, shall be deducted in computing total service, but shall not serve to interrupt continuous service. All absences without leave in excess of one (1) day shall be deducted from, and all absences without leave in excess of three (3) days shall interrupt continuity of service. Provided that leaves of absence with or without pay taken prior to the effective date of this ordinance shall not be taken into consideration in determining "years of continuous service."

SECTION 3. The additional amounts set forth in Section 1, shall be paid in semi-monthly installments together with the payment of the wages of each employee. Any adjustment in the rate of compensation of said employee under the provisions of this ordinance shall become effective on the first day of the month during which the anniversary of the employment or appointment to position occurs.

SECTION 4. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect and be in force on and after March 1, 1966. Said emergency lies in the fact that the members of said departments who have the training and experience for said positions which results from years of service must be compensated for this experience or the City may lose the same resulting in inefficiency and inexperience in said departments and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, health and safety of the citizens of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Passed this 17th day of January, 1966.

ERNEST A. LOWE
President of Council

BETTY JANE BERG

SNOW? YOU GO!

'Jeep' vehicles have the power and extra 4 wheel drive traction to get you through. And with a snow blade . . . you clear the way as you go. Compare the 'Jeep' Universal's plowing capacity with that of its latest imitator . . .

. . . 400 lbs. greater front end load capacity allows for a heavier, stronger plow — to do a better job quicker. For removing snow, or for getting through deep snow, get a job-proved 'Jeep' vehicle. They are versatile, powerful and virtually indestructible. See your 'Jeep' dealer today!

SNOW? YOU GO!

'Jeep' vehicles have the power and extra 4 wheel drive traction to get you through. And with a snow blade . . . you clear the way as you go. Compare the 'Jeep' Universal's plowing capacity with that of its latest imitator . . .

. . . 400 lbs. greater front end load capacity allows for a heavier, stronger plow — to do a better job quicker. For removing snow, or for getting through deep snow, get a job-proved 'Jeep' vehicle. They are versatile, powerful and virtually indestructible. See your 'Jeep' dealer today!

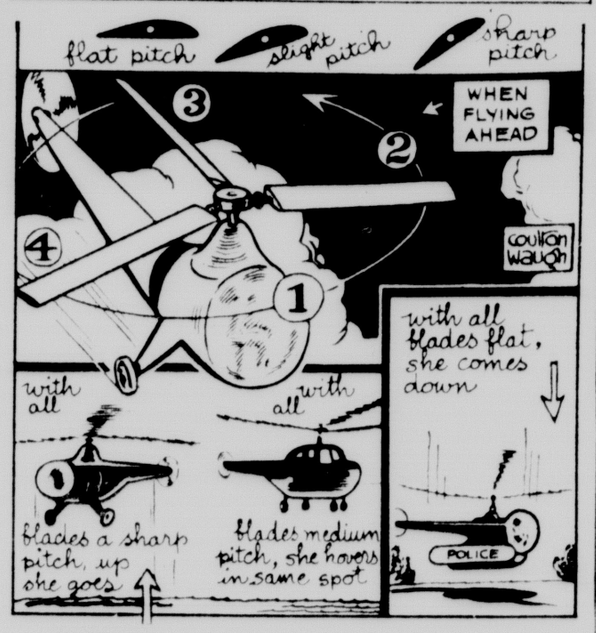
Junior Editors Quiz on HELICOPTERS



QUESTION: How can helicopters fly in so many directions?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The cross-sections of a helicopter's blades, shown at the top of the picture, resemble those of an airplane's wing. Both allow aircraft to fly for the same reason. Moving air takes longer to pass over the curved upper part, creating lesser air pressure above. The greater air pressure on the bottom exerts a lifting force. Of course, a helicopter's blades revolve while an airplane's wings remain still. The secret of why the 'copter can perform so many maneuvers in the air is that the angle of pitch of the blades can be changed. This has an effect similar to that of changing the angle of the paddle while paddling a canoe. Blade angles are controlled by the pilot, who uses the "cyclic pitch stick" to guide the 'copter forward, backward and sideways, and the "collective pitch stick" to fly up and down. When flying ahead, the pitch of blades changes as they beat around. In position (1) the pitch is flat; with (2) it is beginning to turn; and by (3) has a sharp angle or pitch. In (4), the pitch is decreasing and in (1) it is flat again. These different pitches are what the word "cycle" means. In the other movements, all blades have the same "collective" pitch; the small drawings show how different movements are made.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Use your imagination a bit—dream of a little one-man helicopter just big enough to fly by yourself when you are old enough to get a pilot's license. These little one-man jobs have actually been built; we may see them in the skies some day.

Lisbon Council Clears Way For Bridge Work

LISBON — Lisbon Council, Monday night approved a resolution granting permission for Columbiana County to close Pritchard Ave. to vehicular traffic during construction — scheduled to begin in the spring — of a bridge replacement.

County Engineer informed Council that the county plans to have the structure over Mill Creek constructed by contract at no cost to the village. The village, however, will be required to obtain the necessary rights-of-way and work agreements from land owners, he said.

A formal petition relative to the matter will be drawn up by Solicitor Joseph J. Baronzzi.

Prior to the formal meeting, the legislators met in closed session with William R. Webber of East Liverpool, newly-appointed general manager of the CATV Division of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc.

Upon the recommendation of Councilman Wilbur Mattix, the panel unanimously approved the hiring of Paul Barton of Thomas Rd. to check vehicles in the fire department. Barton, a welder at the E. W. Bliss Co. in Salem, will receive $40 a month for checking and inspecting the equipment.

Council approved a $40 allowance for Mrs. Rex Teagarden, Civil Defense representative of Lisbon, to attend a state conference Saturday in Columbus.

Councilman Robert Kelm suggested the Manos Theater be used for storage of Civil Defense equipment, since the Chamber of Commerce has offered the old Lincoln School to the Columbiana County Community College trustees for use as a classroom building.

Councilmen Mattix and Miller, comprising the Property Committee, recommended that the village reject a recent land offer for an addition to the cemetery on the basis "that it was not a good buy."

Group Screens Job Applications

Interviews with eight of the applicants were scheduled for next week by the group, which is in charge of administration of "War on Poverty" programs in the county.

Clyde Harrold of Columbiana, newly-appointed program director, said he plans to visit offices of similar Office of Economic Opportunity groups at Cleveland and elsewhere to familiarize himself with procedures.

The anti-poverty survey which the staff will implement along with other programs has been approved by Gov. James A. Rhodes, it was announced at Columbus Monday.

Corrugated fiber containers, which replaced wood boxes to a great extent, first came into commercial use at the turn of this century.

Crucible Fills New Position

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Co. has named Peter C. Rossin to the new position of assistant to the vice president - Production.

"Mr. Rossin will be responsible for a number of special assignments related to production and operation," said Vice President John G. Gill, to whom he will report. "These include responsibility for our profit improvement program and for coordinating the processing of Crucible's titanium and vacuum melted products."

Before joining Crucible, Rossin had been vice president of operations for the Fansteel Metallurgical Corp. Earlier positions were works manager of the Cyclops Corp.'s Titusville plant and research associate for General Electric. From 1948 to 1951, he had been a research engineer for Remington Arms and then Rem-Cru Titanium, Inc. He has several patents on melting and related equipment and has presented a number of papers on vacuum metallurgy and refractory metals.

Senate Action Slated On 3 Posts In Beaver

The nominations of three Beaver County residents for various posts have been sent to the Pennsylvania Senate at Harrisburgh by Gov. Scranton. They are those of:

Stewart P. McConnel of Beaver Falls, county Board of Assistance; Robert M. Arkwright of Ellwood City, justice of the peace for North Sewickley Township, and William H. Powell of Clinton R.D. 1, justice of the peace for Hanover Township.

Civil Liberties Union Supports Sheppard's Plea

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union says Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard's appeal gives the Supreme Court a chance to "correct at last an egregious denial of criminal due process."

The ACLU, in a brief to the court Monday commented on the Ohio osteopath's 1954 second-degree murder conviction in his wife's bludgeoning death.

Joined in the brief by the Ohio Civil Liberties Union, the ACLU said the appeal not only gives the high court an opportunity to right the alleged "wrong" to Sheppard, but—

"At the same time, provide working solutions for some of the difficult and delicate problems of free press and fair trial which currently beset the administration of criminal justice."

Sheppard's counsel contend he was denied his constitutional rights in the Cleveland trial because, as the ACLU puts it, "the trial court failed to protect the accused from the inherently prejudicial publicity which saturated the community."

The Supreme Court will hear oral arguments probably late in February.

Adult Band Formed

EAST PALESTINE — Fifteen attended the first meeting of a new Community Adult Band at the high school Monday night. W. A. Rittenhouse is director. The group will meet again Monday.

New Records Set By National Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National Steel Corp. has reported its second straight year of record profits, sales, ingot production and shipments.

The company reported Monday that net income for 1965 was $87,497,465 compared with $84,941,765 in 1964. Sales were $1,107,227,053, up more than $141 million over the previous year.

Ingot production topped 8.5 million tons for the first time and shipments were 6.7 million, topping the 6 million mark for the first time.

President George A. Stinson said the record year resulted from "a full and growing participation by our corporation in what was the greatest production and sales year in the history of the American steel industry."

College Trustees Set Educators Gathering

LISBON — Members of boards of education and school superintendents throughout Columbiana County have been invited to a meeting at the McKinley School here Monday night at 8 to meet Dr. Richard Whalen, recently appointed head of the proposed Columbiana County Community College.

County Supt. James McBride said Dr. Whalen will discuss the community college program. The problem of higher education in the county will be reviewed by the trustees of the Community College.

PTO Event Postponed

SUMMITVILLE — A meeting of the Parent - Teacher Organization scheduled Monday night at the Franklin School was postponed because of weather conditions. The meeting may be rescheduled for Monday night, but an announcement is expected later this week.

LISBON — Members of boards of education and school superintendents throughout Columbiana County have been invited to a meeting at the McKinley School here Monday night at 8 to meet Dr. Richard Whalen, recently appointed head of the proposed Columbiana County Community College.

County Supt. James McBride said Dr. Whalen will discuss the community college program. The problem of higher education in the county will be reviewed by the trustees of the Community College.

PTO Event Postponed

SUMMITVILLE — A meeting of the Parent - Teacher Organization scheduled Monday night at the Franklin School was postponed because of weather conditions. The meeting may be rescheduled for Monday night, but an announcement is expected later this week.
